

2012 Spring and Summer Internships

PROJECT INTERCHANGE – SEMINARS IN ISRAEL

Project Interchange, a non-profit institute of the American Jewish Committee, develops and conducts educational seminars in Israel for current and emerging U.S. and international leaders. Project Interchange is seeking interns who will support communication with seminar participants from around the world, assemble a list of program resources for future international seminars, assist with development of seminar participant pre-departure briefing books, perform research and generate reports and dynamic documents. See more details at:

<http://projectinterchange.org/?p=4310>.

THE DERSHOWITZ GROUP

The Dershowitz Group (TDG) is a Washington DC based public affairs and strategic communications firm servicing policy-based clients. Undergraduate and graduate students with an interest in strategic communications (including marketing), foreign policy (such as energy and counter-terrorism), journalism and public relations, are encouraged to apply for an internship.

See more details at: <http://www.dershowitzgroup.com/intern/>.

JEWISH COMMUNITY RELATIONS COUNCIL

As the central community relations agency of the organized Jewish community in our nation's capital, the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC) of Greater Washington represents over 100 constituent agencies, organizations and synagogues in Northern Virginia, the District of Columbia, and suburban Maryland. JCRC Interns are involved in all aspects of our programs, including events planning and publicity, policy development, and information management. See more details at: <http://www.jccouncil.org>.

THE ISRAEL PROJECT – MEDIA FELLOWSHIP SUMMER 2012

TIP's Media Fellows participate in an intensive nine-week program aimed at educating future journalists and advocacy professionals in the art of research, interviewing, writing for publication, communications skills and public relations. The Israel Project (TIP) is a non-profit educational organization that provides factual information about Israel and the Middle East to press, public officials and the public. See more details at:

http://www.theisraelproject.org/site/c.ewJXKcOUJIIaG/b.7717079/k.AB18/Media\_Fellowships.htm#.TuZ9clZVXTA

NEW ISRAEL FUND

The New Israel Fund is the leading organization committed to equality and democracy for all Israelis. To apply for a spring internship please call, Ruti Kadish, Director of Fellowships, 202-513-7823. Position is helping with administration of social justice fellowship and opportunity to learn about the organization's work.

AMERICANS FOR PEACE NOW

Americans for Peace Now was established in 1981 to mobilize support for the Israeli peace movement, Shalom Achshav (Peace Now), and has since developed into the most prominent American Jewish, Zionist organization working to achieve a comprehensive political settlement to the Arab-Israeli conflict. For more details on their spring 2012 internships, see more details at: http://peacenow.org/entries/spring\_2012\_internships.

AIPAC

AIPAC is a 100,000-member grassroots movement of activists committed to ensuring Israel's security and protecting American interests in the Middle East and around the world. AIPAC offers Diamond Summer Internships where interns develop their own political activism skills by bringing research, writing, and event-planning experience to a host of projects that help advance AIPAC's mission. See more details at: <http://www.aipac.org/en/students/diamond-internship>.

AU SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL SERVICE: ISRAEL AND PALESTINE PROGRAM

AU School of International Service offers summer study and internship opportunities for graduate students (advanced undergraduate students may also apply). Students will examine how security, environmental, and human rights issues converge to inform both domestic and foreign policy. See more details at: <http://www.american.edu/sis/summer/Israel.cfm>