Arabic Language Summer Intensive Program 2013

Complete a year of Arabic study in 12 weeks

The Department of World Languages and Cultures at American University is offering three levels of Modern Standard Arabic during the summer 2013 session. Students will have the opportunity to complete a year of academic study of Arabic in 12 weeks during the summer 2013 session. Elementary, Intermediate and Advanced Arabic courses will be offered three evenings per week for 12 weeks. For more information please contact George Berg in the Department of World Languages and Cultures at 202-885-2382 or berg@american.edu.

Summer 2013 Arabic Courses at American University

ARAB-196 Intensive Elementary Arabic
Introduction to Modern Standard Arabic covering its phonology and script, its basic morphology and syntax. The focus is on the development of the reading, speaking, listening, and writing skills, while creating a basic vocabulary. This intensive course covers the material taught during the fall and spring semesters.
10 credits
May 20-August 8, MWT 5:30-9:15pm

ARAB-296 Intensive Intermediate Arabic
The goals of this course are to make students familiar with new elements of Modern Standard Arabic grammar, to further develop their reading, speaking, listening, and writing skills, while expanding the vocabulary. This intensive course covers the material taught during the fall and spring semesters.
Prerequisite: ARAB-103 or equivalent
10 credits
May 20-August 8, MWT 5:30-9:15pm

ARAB-396 Intensive Advanced Arabic
This course introduces students to more advanced Modern Standard Arabic grammar and significantly expands their vocabulary. The focus is on solidification and improvement of the reading, speaking, listening, and writing skills, while learning on Arab institutions, ideas, and history. This intensive course covers the material taught during the fall and spring semesters.
Prerequisite: ARAB-203 or equivalent.
8 credits
May 20-August 8, MWT 5:30-8:30pm

Classes begin Monday, May 20, 2013