You are invited to join us!

CLALS presents “The Changing Cuban Economy,” a lecture by Jorge Mario Sánchez

Jorge Mario Sánchez is a professor at the University of Havana and a senior scholar at the Centro de Estudios de la Economía Cubana (CEEC). A specialist on international trade and economic development, he is currently a visiting scholar at Harvard University's David Rockefeller Center where he is examining the impact of U.S.-Cuba trade on Cuba’s insertion in global markets.

When: Tuesday, November 23, 2010
   Time: 1:30 - 3:00 p.m.
   Where: Mary Graydon Center Room 247

For more information please contact Andrea Mesa at amesa@american.edu or Tel: 202-885-6173