Félix Muruchi Poma is a prominent indigenous rights activist. His personal history as a miner, activist, political prisoner and exile, and most recently indigenous rights lawyer provides an extraordinary lens into Bolivian struggles for social justice. Muruchi will be discussing the evolving nature of Bolivia's processes of social change and his new book, From the Mines to the Streets: A Bolivian Activist's Life.

This event is co-sponsored by the Kay Spiritual Life Center as part of its Fall 2013 Human Rights Defender Series. Please RSVP 24 hours before the event at (202)-885-3321 or kslc@american.edu.