She expressed her thanks to all the faculty and staff that have reached out to her during this time and would like to work closely with the Faculty Senate during her term as SG President.

Students including Isaiah Young, Ma'at Sargent of the Black Student Alliance, and Nicholas Pierce of the African Students Organization raised concerns about the recent hate crime as well as previous racist experiences of black woman and students at AU. Other student visitors also spoke. They expressed their feelings, fears, concerns, and experiences, and presented a list of demands. They are concerned about the lack of black professors in the classrooms and on the Faculty Senate. Several faculty agreed and requested changes.

The Senate VOTED 21-0-0 in favor of the following resolution:

Resolution Requesting the Formation of an AU Commission for Anti-Discrimination and a Senate Working Group for the Same

“The University Faculty Senate resolves to request on behalf of students, faculty, and staff of American University to request AU administration and AU Board to approve, fully resource, and implement a Permanent AU Commission for Anti-Discrimination of broad composition with broad authority, whose core mission includes the following: a) Investigate and report on a semester basis all incidents of discriminatory acts on our campus; and b) develop the most advanced model in higher education for anti-discriminatory policies and accountability in the nation. In addition, the Faculty Senate approves the creation of a permanent Senate committee to work as a bridge and in close coordination with the university commission on anti-discrimination in classrooms, workspace, and the wider campus.”

Professor Eisenstadt stated that the Faculty Senate would like to have a better understanding of what has and is happening on campus and better communication with student and administrative groups. He suggested that a Senate working group be established to come up with concrete solutions moving forward.

Professor Eisenstadt recognized the outgoing and incoming Senators who were present. He thanked those leaving for their challenging work and dedication and thanked those coming for their willingness to serve.
