Washington College of Law

The Department of Public Safety (DPS) and the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) responded to a report of a male exposing himself in front of the Washington College of Law on Tuesday October 14. The suspect fled the location prior to the arrival of DPS and MPD officers.

The subject is described as a male possibly of Middle Eastern or Hispanic descent. He is described as being in his mid-20's, approximately 5’11” tall with a heavy build and curly hair. He was last seen wearing a black jacket, navy blue shorts, and red shoes. The suspect was last witnessed walking towards main campus on Massachusetts Avenue.

If you have information relating to these incidents, or witness suspicious activity, please call the Department of Public Safety at 202-885-3636 or 911 for the Metropolitan Police Department if you are off campus.

SAFETY TIPS

- Program Public Safety’s emergency number 202-885-3636 into your cell phone.
- Report any suspicious activity or suspicious individuals to the Department of Public Safety.
- The Department of Public Safety provides escorts, twenty-four hours a day/seven days a week, for community members to and from university owned property. To arrange for an escort, call 202-885-2527 or use a blue light or red emergency phone.
- The sexual assault prevention coordinator (SAPC) serves to develop and implement prevention and education programs for the AU community about sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking. The SAPC is also available to provide resources and referrals for survivors of sexual assault and can assist survivors in contacting counselors or a victim advocate when requested. The SAPC can be reached at 202-885-3055 and is a confidential resource.
