

American University College of Arts and Sciences
Bachelor of Arts in Economics - International
Effective Fall 2013

• Major Requirements

- 37 credit hours with grades of C or better

No more than 3 credit hours of independent reading and study courses, internships, and co-ops may be used for the major. No more than 6 credit hours may be fulfilled by economics courses taken from study abroad programs.

- Demonstration of intermediate level or higher competence in one modern foreign language
Language - _____ Course _____ Semester _____

Core Requirements (19 credit hours)

semester

- _____ • ECON 100/ECON 100G Macroeconomics 4:1 (3)
- _____ • ECON 200/ECON 200G Microeconomics 4:2 (3)
- _____ ECON 300 Intermediate Microeconomics (3) or ECON 400 Intermediate Microeconomics with calculus (3)
- _____ ECON 301 Intermediate Macroeconomics (3) or ECON 401 Intermediate Macroeconomics with calculus (3)
- _____ • STAT 202 Basic Statistics or STAT-203 Basic Stat w/ calc (4)
- _____ ▪ One of the following:
ECON-480 or ECON-491 or ECON-492 or approved SABD course in with equivalency in ECON.

International (12 credit hours)

- _____ • ECON 371 International Economics: Trade (3) (spring only) pre-req – ECON-300
- _____ • ECON 372 International Economics: Finance (3) (fall only) pre-req –ECON-301
- _____ • One of the following:
ECON 351 Comparative Economic Systems (3),
ECON 361 Economic Development (3),
ECON 362 Microeconomics of Economic Development (3)
ECON 363 Macroeconomics of Economic Development (3)
ECON 458 Economics of the World Regions (3) (topics),
ECON 552 Economics of Transition (3),
- _____ • One of the following:
IBUS 300 Fundamentals of International Business (3),
SISU 320 Topics in Global Economy (3),

Economics Electives (6 credit hours)

(ECON-XXX) at the 300 level or above, excluding ECON 370 International Economics. Only two can be taken from ECON-361, 362 and 363.

Course	Semester	Course	Semester
1. ECON- _____	_____	2. ECON- _____	_____