

Success Stories:

Diversity in International Affairs

Date: Thurs. April 17th

Time: 6:00-8:00pm

Location: Butler Boardroom

Take part in an informal conversation with these accomplished professionals!

FIND OUT:

- How they landed their jobs
- What people, events and experiences helped shape their career paths
- What advice they have for you
- What their experiences have been as a minority in the field of international affairs

For more info: sisinclusion@american.edu

This is an SIS Connections Event

MILEYDI GUILARTE

- Currently nominated to be U.S. Alternate Executive Dir. for the Inter-American Development Bank
- Human Rights Officer, United Nations
- Int'l Cooperation Specialist, Bureau of Latin American Affairs, USAID
- Consultant, World Bank
- SIS/MA '02

AMB. JOHNNIE CARSON

- Fmr. Asst. Sec'y of State for African Affairs, State Dept.
- Fmr. Ambassador to Kenya, Zimbabwe, and Uganda
- Senior Advisor at U.S. Institute of Peace
- Returned Peace Corps Volunteer (Tanzania)

WIDA AMIR

- Program Director, Global Kids
- Immigrant Rights Program Director, National Asian Pacific American Women's Forum (NAPAWF)
- Program Director, South Asian Youth Action (SAYA!)

DR. GEORGE LOPEZ

- V.P., U.S. Institute of Peace
- Joan B. Kroc Institute Hesburgh Chair of Peace Studies at the University of Notre Dame
- Author, Assessing the Utility of Sanctions on Iran and more