

Helping GLBTA Students Make Good Choices About College

Comparing Colleges Worksheet

For each college you're considering, mark whether the college has that resource available
College Name:	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
Are Sexual orientation and gender identity and expression included in the college non-discrimination policy?						Y
Does the college offer domestic partner benefits to all?						Y
Does the college have events with a GLBT focus or theme?						Y
Is there a GLBT student organization?						Y
Is there a GLBT campus office?						Y
Are there open GLBT faculty and staff?						Y
Are there GLBT housing options?						Y*
Are there courses in GLBT Studies?						Y
Is there a Major/Minor in GLBT Studies offered?						N
Are there gay neighborhoods near the college campus?						Y
Does the campus feel welcoming to GLBT students?						Y
Have you met GLBT students?

Interested in American University?

Contact the Spectrum Advisor Project, which connects prospective students to a GLBT student at AU. This way you can get a first hand look at GLBTA life at AU and asks questions to a current student.

Contact the GLBTA Resource Center to get a Spectrum Advisor or go on our website and request one!

 AU offers a Residential Community Cluster (RCC) that focuses on Gender and Sexuality. Contact Housing for more information on this RCC.*

For more information please contact the Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender, and Ally Resource Center at (202) 885-3347 or at glbta@american.edu. Check out our website www.american.edu/glbta