

“In the event of willful and/or reckless damage to common areas readily accessible to student (and/or to the furnishings and facilities located therein), and in the event the responsible individuals of such damage cannot be identified, all resident students who can readily access such common areas will be assessed for such repair and/or replacement costs.”