Student Receptionist (SR)
Position Description

Role of the Student Receptionist

The Student Receptionist (SR) fulfills a vital role in the office by serving as the first point of contact that many customers will encounter when entering the Housing & Dining Programs main office. The Student Receptionist answers phones; greets student, staff and other visitors to the office; and manages all initial inquiries.

Minimum Qualifications

- Full-time student at American University
- Enrolled in a degree-granting program each semester
- Maintain a 2.5 GPA or higher

Compensation

- 2011-2012 Academic Year: $9.50/hour (10-20 hours/week)

Hiring Timeline

Housing and Dining Programs generally hires Student Receptionists twice a year, and on an “as-needed” basis. Please be sure to check our website (<http://www.american.edu/housing>) for a detailed position description and application.

The mission of the Office of Campus Life is to integrate students into a diverse university community; promote their intellectual, social, and spiritual development; and in collaboration with the faculty, prepare students for lifelong learning and global citizenship.

Housing and Dining Programs develops inclusive, student-centered residential communities that enhance the academic experience of each resident while providing services that support the greater university community.

To that end, we are committed to:

- Delivering quality opportunities and services that anticipate the needs and exceed the expectations of the university community by ensuring that the residential and dining experience is our highest priority.
- Providing safe, secure and well-maintained residential environments that promote personal success, social engagement and global responsibility.
- Fostering an appreciation of each individual in ways that increase awareness through active, intentional and continuous engagement with diversity.
- Nurturing the holistic development of residential students through communities that promote co-curricular learning.
- Improving our practices and procedures through ongoing assessment, targeted goal development and benchmarking our progress.
