

Kay Spiritual Life Center

9/11 UNITY WALK

Join the Kay Spiritual Life Center and the Center for Community Engagement & Service for a day of remembrance and service to honor September 11th. Join us as a part of the White House Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge!

9/11 Unity Walk — Sunday, September 9th

12:00 - 5:00pm at Washington Hebrew Congregation

Meet outside Kay at 12:00 for light refreshments before progressing down Massachusetts Ave. to the Gandhi memorial statue, where the program will end at 5:00 with an address by Arun Gandhi. Participants will have numerous opportunities to engage in fellowship and learning with diverse religious organizations.

9/11 Day of Service — Saturday, September 15th

9:00am - noon at MLK Library

3:00-6:00pm at St. Luke Mission Center

6:00-9:00pm at Regency House

Students will have the opportunity to volunteer as a part of the White House Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge at the MLK Library sorting materials for the library for the blind. At St. Luke's on Calvert and Wisconsin students will help prepare food for Regency house, which they will then be able to serve while engaging with the residents.

To register for the service events,
go to <http://bit.ly/gvje2u>

Kay Spiritual Life Center

202-885-3320
american.edu/ocl/kay

Center for Community Engagement and Service

202-885-SERV
american.edu/ocl/volunteer