

American University-November 2008

American Indian Heritage Month

The Linguists" Documentary Screening

Thursday, Nov. 6 @ 2:00–3:20 p.m.

School of International Service Lounge

The film features many last speakers of endangered languages, including Johnny Hill, Jr. from Arizona, who is the last speaker of Chemehuevi.

(Co-Sponsored with the African Council)

Alternative Spring Break trip to Cherokee Info Session

Thursday, Nov. 6 @ 5:00 p.m.

Kay Spiritual Life Center Basement

Come learn about the UMSA's annual alternative spring break trip to the Cherokee Nation. The trip will focus on service and Native American culture and awareness.

Contact: asb@aumethodists.org.

(Co-Sponsored with the UMSA)

Indian Gaming Panel, Tuesday

Tuesday, Nov. 11 @ 8:00–9:30 p.m.

Hughes Formal Lounge

The panelists will discuss the effects Indian gaming has had on the reservation economy and will discuss misconceptions that are associated with the Indian gaming industry.

Sovereignty Lecture

Wednesday, Nov. 12 @ 8:00 p.m.

Mary Graydon Center 200

Diana Bob, Attorney for National Congress of American Indians discusses American Indian and Alaska Native Sovereignty.

Film Showing: Honoring Our Voices

Thursday, Nov. 13 @ 8:30 p.m.

Ward 3

Sharing their stories about recovery and healing, six Native women of different ages and backgrounds talk about the choices they have made to overcome the hardship.

(Co-sponsored with The Peace and Empowerment Project)

Globalization Panel and the Effects on Indigenous Communities

Tuesday, Nov. 18 @ Event Time and Location: TBA

Panelists will speak about how globalization effects indigenous people in Central America.

(Co-sponsored with LASO and Trade Justice)

Native Drum and Dance Exhibition

Thursday, Nov. 20 @ 3:00–4:30 p.m.

The National Museum of the American Indian and SANC present a traditional drum and dance exhibition. Come watch and learn about American Indian arts.

(Co-Sponsored with Washington Internships for Native Students Program)

Winona LaDuke

Monday, Dec. 1 @ 7:00–8:00 p.m.

Kay Spiritual Life Center

Winona LaDuke will discuss the potential for alternative energy to serve as an economic stimulus on American Indian reservations. LaDuke is the founder and director of Honor the Earth and ran for vice president on the Green Party ticket with Ralph Nader in 1996 and 2000.

(Co-sponsored with Eco-Sense, Women's Initiative, Kennedy Political Union, The SPA Council, The Peace and Empowerment Project)

Alaska Native Photography Launch

Thursday, Dec. 4 @ 7:00–8:00 p.m.

MudBox

Come admire Alaska Native photography and learn about Alaska Native culture and way of life.

(Co-sponsored with Bender Library)

Co-Sponsored By Student Advocates for Native Communities (SANC)

For More Information Contact Carrie Johnson at: cejohnson@gmail.com