CAREER DEVELOPMENT AT AU

What You Need to Know in Your First Year
You will earn a yearly starting salary of about $45,000
You will generally need to live in a warm, dry climate year round
You will work indoors in attractive surroundings
You will have a boss (that is, you won’t be working for yourself)
You will be standing most of the time
You will work from 8pm – 4am
You will hear many complaints as part of your job
Some people would consider your work immoral
BLACKJACK DEALER
• You might earn the national average of $66,000 annually
• You work long hours
• You coordinate the work activities of others, from just a few people to hundreds
• You think creatively, trying different approaches
• You do not need an advanced degree but you need significant on the job training
• You can travel all over the world
• You complete long and short term projects for public entertainment
• You receive world-wide, public criticism and praise
• You might earn the national average of $122,000 annually
• Your work environment is spacious with lots of windows
• You will be sitting most of the time
• You will need to work nights and weekends
• You will have a boss
• You will have to pass substance abuse tests regularly
• Your job is one of the most stressful in the world
• You will be responsible for the lives of thousands of people
VALUES GIVEAWAY

• You will have a lot of independence in your job
• You will wear comfortable clothing
• You will be outdoors all day
• You will live in a major metropolitan area
• You can socialize with people and colleagues
• Your job is an important service to the community
• You may make the national average of $32,000
• A college degree is not required
NATIONAL FELLOWSHIP COMPETITIONS

The Office of Merit Awards
STUDENT JOBS

FULL-TIME JOBS & INTERNSHIPS
PART-TIME & FEDERAL WORK STUDY JOBS
NEIGHBORHOOD JOBS
FEDERAL WORK STUDY (FWS)

- Support AU faculty & staff
- Empower a child through DC Reads or Jumpstart
- Assist a local nonprofit organization or government agency
CAREER DEVELOPMENT AT AU

What You Need to Know in Your First Year