

American University's Eagle Endowment for Public & Community Service is pleased to offer the:

“SPRING INTO SERVICE”
2014 Grant Application

If you have come to help me, you are wasting your time. But if you have come because your liberation is bound up with mine, then let us walk together.

-Lila Watson, Aboriginal activist

Background Information

The Eagle Endowment is pleased to offer its annual “Spring Into Service” Grant application for public and community service initiatives. We hope that through our grant, the ideas of students and student organizations will be put into action to “build partnerships, empower communities, and serve to make a difference.”

The “Spring Into Service” Grant is open to all students interested in promoting social justice through unique student-led community service initiatives; this includes undergraduate, graduate, Washington College of Law students, and student groups. If you have questions about whether or not your idea is applicable, please email the Eagle Endowment Coordinator, Salina Rivera, at eagleendowment@american.edu, or stop by MGC 273.

Please Go To: American.edu/Volunteer to see past recipients!

Proposal Format

Please use the following outline to structure your application which will be reviewed by the Eagle Endowment Council. If your proposal is accepted, we will work with you to adjust your budget and timelines as needed. We can also provide technical assistance to help transform your idea into action...and action into service.

I. Introduction: (max. 100 words)

- a. A description of your organization or personal service goals.
- b. Include your goals and philosophies, other projects that you have worked on and your success stories.

II. Needs Assessment: (max. 100 words)

HINT: How did you realize a need for this project? And how are you helping the situation?

- a. Clear, concise, well-supported statement of the issue to be addressed using the grant.
- b. Make a clear statement or case of need: How have you investigated that need? How does your proposal address that need?

III. Project Idea and Objectives: (max. 250 words)

- a. Explain the expected results/impact they will have on the AU and/or DC.
- b. Clearly describe the goal to be accomplished and how it relates to public or community service.

IV. Project Timeline: (1 page: bullet point, outline, or chart as appropriate)

- a. Outline the tasks that will be accomplished with the available resources. Included in the timeline should be the responsibilities of the project's leadership.
- b. Be as specific as possible with dates or projected dates. Is your timeline realistic? At what points will you be able to measurably gauge your progress/success/outcomes?

V. Partners and Allies: (max. 100 words: narrative or bullet)

- a. Include any people or groups working with you and in what capacity.
- b. REQUIRED: You must attach a brief letter of support from the organization with which you will be working.

VI. Project Evaluation: (max. 100 words)

- a. Develop a method for verifying that you are on track with your project and that all of its details are being tended to in a timely manner.
- b. Define carefully how success will be determined. What will be different when the project is complete? Target problems you may encounter during your project.

VII. Project Budget: (use attached form plus max. 100 word narrative)

- a. Project total costs and identify a strategy for raising additional funds that you may need, if necessary.
- b. Complete the attached budget sheet in addition to your narrative.
- c. HINT: Is your budget realistic? Have you made reasonably appropriate allocation requests relevant to the ideals of the Eagle Endowment?
