

66th Washington Asia Forum

Cosponsored by the Center for Asian Studies and the SIS Undergraduate Council

“ Taiwan After the Election ”

Peng Yuan

China Institute of Contemporary International Relations, Beijing

and

Erich Shih

TVBS News, Taiwan

Tuesday

March 23, 2004

2:00pm

Mary Graydon Center 5 (first floor)

Erich Shih is a visiting fellow with the Brookings Institution’s Center for Northeast Asia Policy Studies and the Washington Correspondent for TVBS News, a leading twenty-four hour news channel in Taiwan. He has frequently traveled with the United States President to cover his overseas trips and has also covered political and military issues involving Washington, Taipei, and Beijing. He received his M.A. degree from Georgetown University and his M.B.A. from Boston University.

Peng Yuan, also a visiting fellow at Brookings, is deputy director of the Division for American Studies at the China Institute of Contemporary International Relations (CICIR). His research focuses on US Foreign Policy, U.S.-China relations, the Taiwan Issue, Cross-strait relations, and Asian-Pacific Security issues. His current research is on the topic of “The Taiwan Issue in the Context of China-US Counter-terrorism Cooperation”. His Ph.D. in American History is from Northeast Normal University, MA from East China Normal University.

For further information, contact the Director of the Center for Asian Studies, Professor Quansheng Zhao or Aria Bailey (202-885-1760)