

82nd Washington Asia Forum

Center for Asian Studies of American University

“The Future of the Korean Peninsula and the US-Korean Alliance: What Do South Koreans Want?”

Mi-Ae Chu
Congresswoman
New Millennium Democratic Party

Friday
February 4, 2005

2:00pm

Battelle-Tompkins Atrium

Congresswoman Chu is a current member of the 16th National Assembly and a member of the Unification, Foreign Affairs and Trade Committees. She is also a former member of the Government Administration and Local Autonomy Committee. She was first elected to the National Assembly in April of 1996. She has been an advocate for the rights of the poor, minorities, and the less well-to-do in Korea – she seeks to pursue politics and the use of politics for the good of all Korean society. She also received numerous awards and honors during her career, including the 2002 Award of Development of Woman's Politics from the Korea Woman's Voters Association, and the 2002 Excellent Award from the Delegation of NGO Monitors of National Politics Audit.

For further information, contact the Director of the Center for Asian Studies, Professor Quansheng Zhao or Aria Bailey (202-885-1760)