Suggested Course Sequence for Students in the M.A. in International Economics (MAIE) Program

Fall 1st Year
ECON-505 Introduction to Mathematical Economics (Prerequisite: Calculus*)
ECON-601 Macroeconomics (May be taken concurrently with ECON-505)
ECON-623 Econometrics I or SIS Elective (e.g., SIS-616 International Economics)

Spring 1st Year
ECON-600 Microeconomics (Prerequisite: ECON-505)
ECON-672 International Finance (Prerequisite: ECON-601)
SIS-666 International Financial Relations (Prerequisite: SIS-616, waived)

Summer
ECON-623 Econometrics I or SIS Elective or nothing

Fall 2nd Year
ECON-671 International Trade (Prerequisite ECON-600)
SIS-665 International Trade Relations (Prerequisite: SIS-616, waived)
ECON-624 Econometrics II (Prerequisite: ECON-623)

Spring 2nd Year
SIS-751 International Political Economy (Prerequisite: SIS-616, waived)
SIS Elective
SIS-793 Practicum or ECON-797 Capstone

* Calculus must be taken prior to arrival on campus.
 Recommended for students with no background in international economics.