

Reclaiming the Power of Nonviolence:

Successes, Obstacles, and Sustainability of Nonviolent Movements in the Arab Spring

Featuring: Amir Ben Amer, Jawdat Said, Afra Said & Nabeel Rajab

March 29th & 30th, 2012

9 am - 5 pm

American University

SIS Abramson Family Founders Room

[DAY 1] Panel 1: Nonviolent Organization and Strategies for Success

Panel 2: Addressing Obstacles and challenges in Sustaining Nonviolent Action

Panel 3: The Role of Nonviolent Movements in Transition

[DAY 2] Panel 4: Marginalized Groups in Nonviolent Political Social Movements

Panel 5. Minorities in Power and Transition: A Case Study of the KRG

Panel 6. Emerging Applications of Nonviolent Methods: The Way Forward

For more information and to RSVP e-mail cpd@american.edu

Sponsored by the Center for Peacebuilding & Development, the Mohammed Said Farsi Chair of Islamic Peace, the International Peace and Conflict Resolution Program, and Nonviolence International