

INTERNSHIP

Summer 2011

OECD Anti-Corruption Division, Directorate for Financial and Enterprise Affairs

An internship is available at the Anti-Corruption Division of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) for a minimum of two months during the summer of 2011. Applications are invited from law students who have completed or are completing a law degree.

The post is for an individual who is fully fluent in written and spoken English. Good knowledge of French would be a plus.

Applicants should have a deep interest in working in a multi-cultural environment. The OECD is located in Paris, France.

Description of Tasks

The main focus of the OECD Anti-Corruption Division is to monitor implementation of the OECD Convention on Combating Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions by its 38 State Parties.

The intern will work mainly on helping prepare a team of experts for the upcoming Phase 3 evaluations under the OECD Anti-Bribery Convention monitoring mechanism, which concern in particular the United Kingdom and Hungary. Tasks include:

- Research and analysis of the corruption situation facing domestic companies from the country concerned;
- Preparation of background information on the current economic situation in the country concerned, including research and analysis of risk factors for the bribery of foreign public officials by domestic companies;
- Research of ongoing corruption cases in the country concerned or involving domestic companies abroad, and preparation of case law summaries;
- Research and analysis of codes of conduct of domestic companies from the concerned country, and how they address the bribery of foreign public officials.

In addition, the intern may be called upon to provide support on other horizontal issues regarding implementation of the OECD Anti-Bribery Convention, or the regional initiatives managed by the Anti-Corruption Division.
