Introduction to International Relations Research Poster Conference

December 7, 2011 – 4:30 to 6:15pm in the SIS Atrium

Session 1: The Politics of Development and the Environment, 4:30-5:15pm

Sean Dugdale. “Water Wars: Institutional Perception and Effectiveness as Determinants of Conflict in Water-Scarce States.”
Colin Benz. “Contemporary Attitudes of German Youth Towards the Turkish Minority.”
Xholina Nano. “Flight From Unemployment in Post-Communist Albania.”
Katrina Potts. “Separated at Birth: Corruption and the Divergent Development Paths of Georgia and Estonia.”
Emily Edwards. “Economic Growth and Quality of Life.”
Cynthia Arevalo. “Understanding the Economic Aspirations of Illegal Immigrants in the United States.”
Cody Steele. “Shifting Social Movement Theory and Students in the Streets.”

Reception 5:15-5:30pm, Remarks by Dean Goldgeier and Dean Cowles

Session 2: Security and Foreign Policy, 5:30-6:15pm

Miki Kobayashi. “Investigating the Resurgence of Leftist Regimes in Latin America: Cases of Bolivia and Chile.”
Chase Freeman. “Roots of Haitian Misfortune.”
Michelle McKeever. “Female Presidents in Argentina and Chile: How They Influence Reproductive Rights Policies.”
Matthew Osborn. “Patterns of Peacekeeping: Search for a Causal Pathway with UN Authorized Interventions.”
Kurt Girard. “Efficacy of Eradication.”
Kirsten Peterson. “Policy and Recovery in Colombia.”
Alex Vanier. “China's 'Peaceful' Rise: A Battle of Perceptions.”
Lieselotte Siegenthaler. “Reflecting on the UN: Western Media and Peacekeeper Abuse.”
Gary Zottoli. “U.S. Public Opinion and Discourse After Nixon's Visit to China.”
Jeffrey Gan. “Red, Blue, and Green Taiwan: Identity Politics in a Post-Imperial Relationship.”