Introduction to International Relations Research Poster Session

April 20, 2011
SIS Atrium

Session 1 (Culture, Development, and Political Change): 4:30-5:15 p.m.
Hanna Barker. “Friend and/or Foe: Political Implications of Civil Anti-Americanism in South Korea.”
Symphony Chau. “Human Trafficking in Cambodia and Moldova.”
Andrew Feierman. “Exploring the Link between Social Development and Mega-events in Developing Countries.”
Travis McKay-Roberts. “A Dangerous Business: Controlling the Spread of Small Arms in a Flat World.”
Ami Patel. “State Power and its Relationship to the Reacquisition of Cultural Artifacts.”
Rick Say. “IDP (Internally Displaced Persons) Movement and Emergency Shelters in Haiti.”
Grayson Scogin. “Islam and Democracy.”
Willem van der Mei. “Human Development and Structural Adjustment Development Programs: An Assessment of Factors Contributing to Success.”
Ryan Youra. “A Land Based-Problem?: Examining the Affinity Between Communities and Piracy.”

Reception 5:15-5:30 p.m.

Session 2 (Conflict and Inequality): 5:30-6:15 p.m.
Alex Adamczyk. “Hegemony and Conflict: An Alternative to Democratic Peace Theory.”
Ana Baltierra. “Mohammed Bouazizi: The Human Spark that Ignited the Tunisian Revolution of 2011.”
Maura Farrell. “Made for Trade: India, Regionalism, and Global Commerce.”
Kristen Fraley. “Truth-telling After Apartheid: Success or Failure? A Media Analysis.”
Sabina Gasimova. “The mountainous Black Garden on fire.”
Ivy Johnson. “Sexual Orientation and Gender Expression in Turkey.”
Carl Jones. “New Wars in West Africa: The Questionable Criticality of Identity Politics.”
Brandy Pech. “Inequality in Africa: Geography and Gender Inequality.”
Elizabeth Wilke. “Bystanders to Genocide: The Cases of Rwanda & Cambodia.”