Session 1: 2:45-3:45 pm
Becky Bock, “Perception and Corruption: A Nation's Obligation to Monitor Officials.”
Lauren Bosma, “The Effect of Indigenous & Elite Interactions on Social Movement Formation: Bolivia and Peru.”
Anjali Fischer, “Leasing Life: The Economic Inequity of Water Privatization.”
Abigail Frost, “Ideological Transfer: A Comparison of U.S. Federal Indian Policy and Foreign Policy.”
Bradley Harmon, “Stimulus Packages and Economic Growth in Democracies.”
Alex King, “Gender Inequality and the Effects of Economic Growth.”
Yuliya Khromyak, “Gender Parity in Education and Contraception: The Road to Economic Development.”
Bret Matera, “Developing Violence.”
Casey Murphy, “God and Girls' Education: The Cases of Ethiopia and Sierra Leone.”
Bethany Tietjen, “Corruption in the Ukraine and its Prospects for EU Membership.”

Session 2: 4:00-5:00 pm
Shelby Allinder, “Albania’s American Devotion.”
Clarence Cabanero, “Economic Integration in East Asia: Historical Animosity & the Prospects of an FTA.”
Rianna Eckel, “UN Humanitarian Intervention and the Absence of Initiative in Tibet.”
Rachael Somerville, “Carbon Tire Tracks: Sustainable Transportation in Car-Based States.”
Lorraine Holmes, “Militarism and Wartime Rape.”
Sandra Mekler, “Who cares about the Middle East? A case study of public opinion in the US.”
Richard Murphy, “Smart Sanctions: An Effective Means of Inducing Policy Change in Authoritarian Regimes?”
Megan Nissel, “NATO Intervention.”
Joel Smithey, “Understanding the Effectiveness of Negotiations Between the PRC and Tibet.”
Michelle Tham, “The Middle Class and Protest Behavior in China.”
Erica Thomas, “Busted by the Feds? Government Corruption and Drug Trafficking.”