BENEFACTOR'S AWARD

The Center for Congressional and Presidential Studies has established an award fund for the Campaign Management Institute, the Public Affairs and Advocacy Institute, and the European Public Affairs and Advocacy Institute through the generosity of friends and alumni of the Center. These awards are intended to provide financial assistance to students enrolled in the institutes.

The recipient of the Benefactors' Award will be selected based on two criteria: merit and financial need. To apply, please submit a resume, transcript with your most recent GPA (can be unofficial) and a 1-2 page cover letter that addresses the two criteria for the award:

1. Detail merit: previous academic and professional accomplishments and future aspirations.
2. Detail financial need: including income, scholarships, loans, and expenses.*

Campaign Management Institute Financial Award

This fund provides a $1,000 stipend to a student or young professional interested in pursuing a career in campaigning.

Public Affairs and Advocacy Institute Financial Award

This fund provides a $1,000 stipend to a student or young professional interested in pursuing a career in lobbying or advocacy.

European Public Affairs and Advocacy Institute Financial Award

This fund provides a $1,000 stipend to a student or young professional interested in pursuing a career in lobbying or advocacy.

The Benefactors' Award is reserved for students seeking academic credit. Applications for the award are due by Thursday, April 13, 2017 for the May sessions of CMI and PAAI. Only successful applicants will be notified. Contact the Center for Congressional and Presidential Studies for more information.

*At the end of your cover letter please include the line: "I certify that the information I have provided is complete and truthful. I am aware that the submission of false or misleading information is cause for the award to be revoked. (Signature)"
