

GLOBAL SHARED VALUE LEADERSHIP

Linking Needs + Interests to Create Shared Value

GSVL graduates will be able to link the interests of organizations and their leaders with the needs of communities to design shared value initiatives. The GSVL Certificate is a formal recognition that you have completed a transformative 10-day action learning experience from the highly selective Key Executive Leadership Programs at American University.

Join world class faculty, shared value practitioners, and global leaders to address leadership and public-private partnership challenges while building trust across business, government, and nonprofit sectors.

BROUGHT TO YOU BY AMERICAN UNIVERSITY, DEVELOPED BY:

EXELEADMEN:

Exeleadmen provides leaders and entrepreneurs with the knowledge, tools, and networks to create economic value by way of creating societal value.

BELIEVE GREEN:

We are fostering an economic system that intrinsically safeguards our environment.

INFINITYSQUARED: InfinitySquared builds strategic cross-sector partnerships to accelerate development efforts and unlock business potential.

"To solve our most vexing problems, we need executives who can move easily among the business, government, and social spheres"

NICK LOVEGROVE & MATTHEW THOMAS

| ORGANIZATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES AND BENEFITS | BUSINESS (create wealth) | NONPROFIT (accelerate impact) | GOVERNMENT (improve policies) |
|---|--|---|---|
| OPPORTUNITIES | Develop new product/service Fill the skills gap Build greater employee motivation, loyalty, and productivity Strengthen stakeholder relationships Acquire better understanding of development issues | Design new collaborative projects across sectors Increase streams of revenue Acquire new skills and competencies | Advance agendas by developing synergies Strengthen relationships with stakeholders Innovate solutions for communities and regional planning Acquire new perspectives to create new and enhance existing policies |
| BENEFITS | Open new markets Diversify streams of revenue Improve relationships with key stakeholders Increase market share and competitiveness Decrease social, political, and environmental risks | Scale social and environmental impact Align organization with development agendas Strengthen relationships with communities within areas of operation | Scale impact of proven policies by leveraging additional resources Accomplish goals established within agenda Improve relationships with constituents, communities, and other key stakeholders |

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

| Day 1 | Welcome, Course Overview, and Introduction to Shared Value | |
|-------|--|--|
| Day 2 | Leadership Competencies to Link Community Needs to Interests of Individual Leaders | |
| Day 3 | Linking Community Needs and Organizational Interests | |
| Day 4 | Field Visit | |
| Day 5 | Shared Needs & Interests Presentations | |
| Day 6 | How to Create Shared Value | |
| Day 7 | Leadership and Communication Strategies for Shared Value | |
| Day 8 | Implementing Shared Value Initiatives: Lessons Learned | |
| Day 9 | Designing Shared Value Initiatives | |
| | | |

Day 10 Shared Value Action Plan Presentations/Certification Ceremony

ELIGIBILITY

In order to optimize the learning environment, this program will enroll 8 business leaders, 8 government managers and 8 non-profit executives for each 10-day GSVL cohort.

You are eligible to apply if you have:

- · At least 5 years of experience in management and leadership
- · A graduate degree and/or relevant experience
- · Competence in English (minimum TOEFL score 600)

APPLY TODAY: BEGIN YOUR GSVL JOURNEY NOW!

Contact us to get started

www.american.edu/spa/key/Global-Shared-Value-Leadership.cfm

CALL 1.202.249.8093 EMAIL admissions@gsvl.info

If your organization is interested in hosting a two-week GSVL session, we may be able to accommodate your location and dates. Please contact us using the information above.