

THE WASHINGTON MENTORSHIP PROGRAM

ARRIVAL DETAILS

To: Washington Mentorship Program Fall 2011 Students
From: Farkanda Haseen, WMP Coordinator
Subject: Arrival Details

I hope you're getting excited about beginning the Washington Mentorship Program at American University in a few weeks. We're looking forward to your participation.

Enclosed in this mailing are the following:

- "Welcome to DC" that gives great information about the city and its history
- What to Bring Checklist
- Room Rentals and Student Discounts
- Fall 2011 Dates to Remember
- Maps of Tenley Campus, Main Campus, and the DC Metro
- DC Shopping Aid
- "What to do in DC"
- Activities and Events on Campus
- Taxis and Transportation Services
- Local Bank List
- List of Local Restaurants
- List of Local Area Hotels
- Sample Math Placement Exam Questions
- A tentative 2011 Orientation Schedule, which you will follow when you arrive at AU!

In a separate booklet, you will also find The Washington Mentorship Program Student Guide, which includes housing, travel, and other information to help you prepare for the program. In addition, we have included American University's Academic Integrity Code. We ask that you please sign the attached sheet indicating that you have read and understand the terms of the Academic Integrity Code. You can either fax this form back to us, or bring it with you when you arrive here in DC!

This will be the final mailing before you arrive the weekend of August 20th & 21st. I will continue to send you email updates in the upcoming weeks through your AU e-mail accounts. If you should have any additional questions, please feel free to contact me. Email is best at mentorship@american.edu, but I can also be reached by phone at (202) 895-4936.

Enjoy the rest of your summer. Don't forget to read The Good Soldiers for your College Writing course.

It's going to be a great fall!
