Deloitte Federal Campus Recruiting Presents...

Federal Consulting Panel and Information Session

Are you interested in serving the Federal government but maybe you’ve never thought about consulting? Come hear from some of the Federal government’s former leaders, now leaders at Deloitte Consulting LLP at Deloitte’s Federal Consulting Panel and Information Session on Monday, September 27.

At the Federal Consulting Panel, you’ll get to hear from and ask questions to a distinguished group of leaders, and then have the opportunity to hear about open positions at Deloitte during our Information Session. We hope to see you on the 27th!

Date: Monday, September 27, 2010
Time: 7:30-8:30 (Panel) and 8:30-9:30 p.m. (Info Session)
Location: Mary Graydon Center, Room 3
Questions? Contact AU Alum Liz Krimmel (MPP ’08) at ekrimmel@deloitte.com

Panelists

Dave Brant
Director

Dave Brant joined Deloitte in May 2006 as a globally recognized leader in the law enforcement community and having spent more than three decades in the field. He joined the Naval Criminal Investigative Service in 1977 and became director of NCIS in 1997. Dave guided the agency through an unprecedented time of development and transformation, punctuated by the attack on the USS Cole and the events of September 11, 2001. Dave now specializes in Law Enforcement consulting with Deloitte and among his primary clients are the Department of Justice, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives, United States Marshal’s Service and the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center. As a Director at Deloitte, he applies his exceptional leadership skills and experience to support public and private sector organizations in the areas of homeland security and criminal justice.

Clarence Crawford
Director

Clarence Crawford is an American University alumnus joining Deloitte’s Federal practice in 2005 bringing with him nearly 40 years of experience working in the Federal government and a strong background in financial management and organizational transformation. Through his work at Deloitte, Clarence helps CFOs find practical solutions to complex financial management and financial transformation challenges. He also serves as a subject matter expert for financial management and systems improvements for his clients. Prior to Deloitte, Clarence most recently worked at the U.S. Office of Personnel Management, from which he retired as CFO. He also chaired the Capital Investment Committee; served as a member of the Federal government’s Chief Financial Council; and led the Improper Payments Subcommittee. Additionally, Clarence has 15 years of experience serving in highly visible and sensitive executive positions in the Legislative and Executive Branches.
Kyle Cruley
Principal

Kyle Cruley is an American University alumnus joining Deloitte’s Federal practice in 2009. Kyle brings with him experience in the federal government and military including holding a position as a legislative correspondent/legislative assistant to Congresswoman Anne M. Northrup. Kyle is also the author of the 2007 publication, Program and Resource: Program and Budget Strategic Planning Initiative to the U.S. Marine Corps (USMC). Kyle is currently overseeing the work on several USMC projects.

Stephen Mikolaski
Senior Manager

Stephen Mikolaski joined Deloitte in 2006 after a 26 year career in the U.S. Marine Corps, retiring as a Colonel. He brings extensive experience in managing large complex programs, coordinating executive-level financial activities for the DoD CFO, and directing anti-terrorism and force protection security programs in the National Capital Region. Steve now leads one of the largest engagements in Deloitte’s Federal Practice, providing integrated acquisition program management support for the Transportation Security Administration. He is also involved in a number of Deloitte initiatives, including the DHS Lifestyle Integration for Excellence (LIFE) Initiative and is a member of the Executive Board of the Deloitte Armed Forces Business Resource Group.

Jennifer Walcott
Senior Manager

Jennifer Walcott has been with Deloitte for more than 11 years, with experience in federal financial management, including performance management, business process redesign, benchmarking, finance transformation, and service delivery model design. Jennifer started with the firm in Chicago, IL, where she supported state and local government clients (primarily public schools, mental health centers, and substance abuse facilities) implementing Medicaid programs. Jennifer holds a BA with honors in history from Williams College and is a Project Management Professional (PMP).

John Cassidy
Manager

John Cassidy joined Deloitte in 2008 bringing with him six years of experience in non-profit management and consulting, including serving as the director of the National Youth Leadership Forum which is a leadership development program for 1500 high school students annually. He specializes in policy development and analysis, cost benefit analysis, strategic planning, and leadership development and facilitation.

Mark Porell
Manager

Mark Porell joined Deloitte in 2009 bringing with him over six years of military experience as a Lieutenant with the U.S. Navy. Mark’s government experience includes managing large-scale, command-wide DoD projects including the management, implementation, and training of the Navy’s training and personnel management system for an operational command of over 400 personnel. Mark has extensive experience in briefing and advising senior military and government officials on operations, workforce, and recruiting strategies, leadership development, and enterprise-wide training initiatives. He specializes in Talent Strategies, Leadership Development, Recruiting, strategy, Operations, Finance, and General Management.

Deloitte refers to one or more of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, a Swiss Verein, and its network of member firms, each of which is a legally separate and independent entity. Please see www.deloitte.com/about for a detailed description of the legal structure of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu and its member firms.