We Recommend...

DC Central Kitchen*
The 5,000 meals DCCK dishes out every day are loaded into their fleet of trucks and distributed at little or no cost to 100 nearby homeless shelters, transitional homes, and nonprofit organizations, saving them money and nourishing their clients. Most importantly, these meals go out with a message: in the DCCK main kitchen, they offer a rigorous Culinary Job Training program for unemployed men and women who want to replace homelessness, addiction, and incarceration with new careers and changed lives. Food can do so much more than fill stomachs: their mission is to use food as a tool to strengthen bodies, empower minds, and build communities.

Contact: Pertula George-Redd, (202) 234-0707 x121 / pgeorge-redd@dccentralkitchen.org www.dccentralkitchen.org / 425 2nd Street, NW Washington, DC 20001

The Homeless Children’s Playtime Project*
The Homeless Children’s Playtime Project's mission is to nurture healthy child development and reduce the effects of trauma among children living in temporary housing programs in the District of Columbia. Volunteers provide weekly activities, healthy snacks, and opportunities to play and learn for the children at emergency shelter and transitional housing sites in the District of Columbia. In the past eight years, 600 volunteers have served more than 1,000 children at eight playtime sites throughout the city.

Contact: (202) 329-4481 / info@gmail.com / www.playtimeproject.net
1525 Newton St. NW, Washington, DC 20010

A Wider Circle*
The mission of A Wider Circle is to empower children and adults to break the cycles of poverty and poor health. Its comprehensive wellness programming helps individuals gain greater control of their wellbeing, while the delivery of furniture, home goods and more helps individuals and families meet their basic needs.

Contact: (301) 608.3504 / annethompson@awidercircle.org / www.awidercircle.org
9159-C Brookville Road, Silver Spring, MD 20910

AHC Inc.
A long-time nonprofit affordable housing developer in Arlington is looking for volunteers to work with students in two of our award-winning education programs. You can make a difference! Teen Tutoring: Fosters both academic and life skills to help teens graduate from high school and maximize their potential. 90% go to college! Tutors are paired with one student throughout the school year for one hour once a week from 6:30 to 7:30 pm. After-School: Focuses on building literacy and math skills. Volunteers are particularly needed for homework help. Join us for one hour once a week between 3:00 and 6:00 pm. Six Arlington Locations: Volunteer opportunities are available at six community centers in Arlington. Several are metro accessible.

Contact: Cindy Rozon / Rozon@ahcinc.org / 703-486-0626 x154 / www.ahcinc.org

Arlington Food Assistance Center
AFAC provides supplementary food to Arlington residents, averaging 1600 families per week. AFAC serves families with referrals, elderly residents, people who are unemployed because of physical, mental, or emotional disabilities, people who are ill or disabled from work, and people starting a new job after a period of unemployment.

Contact: (703) 845-8486 / volunteer4afac@afac.org / www.afacinfo.org
2708 South Nelson St. Arlington, VA 22206

*CCES Partners 2010-2012........................................................................................................................................Updated 2/25/2016
Arlington Street People’s Assistance Network (A-SPAN)*
A-SPAN runs programs such as Street Outreach, Homeless Bagged Meal Program, and Opportunity Place, where clients can do their laundry, get a meal, and more. A-SPAN also provides supportive services including case management, employment counseling, healthcare, and housing services.

Contact: Amanda, (703) 842-0168 / amark@a-span.org / www.a-span.org
2708 South Nelson St., Arlington, VA 22206

Back on My Feet DC*
Back on My Feet teaches critical work and life skills, such as discipline, leadership, and goal-setting that help lead members toward a road filled with hope, happiness, opportunity and prosperity. The organization’s comprehensive program includes connections to BoMF’s job training and workforce development partners and offers assistance with education and housing expenses. Volunteers must attend an orientation. Runs begin Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 5:45am and Saturdays from Union Station at 8am.

Contact: Bill Kuennen, bill@backonmyfeet.org / (202) 488-2046 / dc.backonmyfeet.org
122 C St. NW Suite 240, Washington, DC 20001
Blair House, 635 I St., NE, Washington, DC 20002
Clean and Sober Streets, 425 2nd St., NW, Washington, DC 20217
Emery House, 1725 Lincoln Rd. NE, Washington, DC 20002
La Casa, 1131 Spring Rd. NW, Washington, DC 20010

Capital Area Food Bank*
The mission of the Capital Area Food Bank is to feed those who suffer from hunger in the Washington metro area by acquiring food and distributing it through its network of partner agencies; and educating, empowering and enlightening the community about the issues of hunger and nutrition. CAFB is a member of Feeding America, a national network of 200 food banks.

Contact: (202) 644-9800 / volunteer@capfoodbank.org / www.capitalareafoodbank.org
4900 Puerto Rico Ave. NE, Washington, DC 20017

Common Good City Farm*
Common Good City Farm is an urban farm and education center growing food with and for low-income residents in Washington, DC and providing educational opportunities for all people that help increase food security, improve health, and contribute to environmental sustainability. Farm Volunteers are asked to do anything from planting seeds and weeding to painting or building. There are also opportunities to assist with office work.

Contact: (202) 559-7513 / info@commongoodcityfarm.org / www.commongoodcityfarm.org
On V St between 2nd & 4th St., NW

The Community Council for the Homeless at Friendship Place*
CCHFP addresses homelessness with innovative, customized programs that empower participants to rebuild their lives, find homes, get jobs and reconnect with friends, family, and the community. CCHFP offers outreach, hospitality, health care, case management, housing, jobs, education, and advocacy services.

Contact: Ben Bradburn, (202) 503-2963, bbradburn@cchfp.org / www.cchfp.org
4713 Wisconsin Ave, NW, Washington, DC 20016

Community Family Life Services*
CFLS is a nonprofit organization that provides housing, case management, employment counseling, mentoring, youth development, and emergency services to low-income and homeless families and individuals in Washington, DC. CFLS has two primary goals: (1) to provide short-term crisis assistance, and (2) to empower families and individuals to change their lives over the long term. Programs include housing, emergency food and clothing, case management, employment services, support services, mentorship, camps, and parent services.

Contact: Kevin Holst, (202) 347-0511x415 / development@cflsdc.org / www.cflsdc.org
305 E St, NW, Washington, D.C. 20001

Community for Creative Non-Violence*
The CCNV’s mission is to ensure that the rights of the homeless and poor are not infringed upon, and that every person has access to life’s basic essentials – food, shelter, clothing and medical care. The CCNV is also committed to protecting the rights of the homeless, advocating on behalf of the underserved and preparing homeless men and women to re-enter into mainstream society as skilled and productive citizens.
Community of Hope, Inc.
Community of Hope provides services in the following areas: housing for homeless families, health care for uninsured and low-income families, and after-school enrichment for children. Volunteers can help out with childcare when parents are in life skills classes, offer computer lab assistance, support young people with literacy-based enrichment activities, or become mentors.

Contact: (202) 393-1909 / volunteer@TheCCNV.org / www.theCCNV.org
425 2nd St, NW, Washington, D.C. 20001

District Alliance for Safe Housing
At the District Alliance for Safe Housing, or DASH, we believe that all survivors of domestic violence and their families no matter what their situation, should have access to, and be welcomed into, safe housing and a wide variety of services that allows them to rebuild their lives on their own terms. Volunteers play a vital role in furthering the mission of DASH, by supporting programming and working one-on-one with our residents. We have a number of opportunities to volunteer including tutoring, Art Group, dance classes and monthly service learning trips.

Contact: Mari Vangen (202)-462-3274/mvangenadams@dashdc.org/dashdc.org

Food and Friends
Prepare, package, and deliver meals and groceries to nearly 1,000 people living with HIV/AIDS and other life-changing illnesses such as breast, lung, and colon cancer through D.C., Maryland, and Virginia.

Contact: (202) 269-2277 / volunteerinfo@foodandfriends.org / www.foodandfriends.org
219 Riggs Road, NE, Washington, DC 20011

Friends of Guest House
Friends of Guest House is a nonprofit organization that provides a temporary home for women recently released from prison who need basic support services to facilitate a new start in life and successfully transition back into society. Friends of Guest House offers structure, supervision, support and assistance to women who sincerely want to improve their lives and break the cycle of incarceration.

Contact: (703) 549-8072 / info@friendsofguesthouse.org / www.friendsofguesthouse.org
1 East Luray Ave., Alexandria, VA 22301

Hope and a Home
Hope and a Home brings an intensive, multifaceted response to address the heart of what is perpetuating poverty with each individual family. Using one-on-one coaching and peer support, parents and children build on their aspirations and strengths to achieve permanent housing, higher education, rewarding work, and valuable connections to their community.

Contact: Rosa Mooten, (202) 387-7091 x200 / volunteer@hopeandahome.org / www.hopeandahome.org
1439 R Street, NW, Washington, DC 20009

Jubilee Housing Inc.
Jubilee Youth Services
JYS is housed in Jubilee Housing, Inc. an affordable housing non-profit that serves over 850 low-income residents. JYS offers children academic support through homework and teaching activities based on DCPS standards. Along with traditional teaching scenarios JYS offers students community service opportunities, enrichment activities like cooking, and other life skill lessons to enhance the time students spend in our centers. At JYS you will be able to serve in early child education with our Early Start program, 3rd through 6th grade students in our Activity Zone, and 7th through 12th grade students in our Teen Renaissance center.

Contact: Aliya Rocke (202) 299-1240 / info@jubileehousing.org / www.jubileehousing.org
1640 Columbia Rd. NW, Washington, DC 20009

Updated 2/25/2016
Jubilee Jobs
Jubilee Jobs is a non-profit workforce development organization committed to helping the poor, disadvantaged and unemployed in the Washington, DC area obtain the jobs they desperately need and to guide them in moving beyond poverty toward sustained self-sufficiency. Volunteer opportunities include giving mock interviews, leading workshops, being a counselor assistant, or being a move-up program mentor.

Contact: Sheila Robinson (202) 667-8970 / srobinson@jubileejobs.org / www.jubileejobs.org
2712 Ontario Rd, NW, Washington, DC 20009

Manna
Manna's work focuses on three principal areas: Renovating or building affordable homes, educating first-time homebuyers for the process of home purchase and for success as homeowners, and training first-time homeowners and their neighbors throughout the city to become community leaders. Volunteers can help with construction work, special events planning, and office work.

Contact: Uche Ofodile, (202) 832-1845 x224 / uofodile@mannadc.org / www.mannadc.org
828 Evarts St, NE, Washington, DC 20018

Martha's Table
Martha’s Table impacts over 1100 people a day with its programs, including those for children and youths from ages 3 months to 22 years old, and their families. Martha’s Table runs a grocery program, daycare, after-school and summer programs, and family support services.

Contact: (202) 328-6608 x212 / volunteer@marthastable.org / www.marthastable.org
2114 14th St NW, Washington, DC 20009

Mary House
Mary House is a local nonprofit organization which works with immigrant and refugee families in the DC area. Mary House is open to all and many of the families are from foreign countries—including El Salvador, Mexico, Guatemala, Columbia, Bosnia, and Iraq. Volunteering with us would mean working with the after school portion of our program. We would want someone who could come in at least once or twice a week, for at least 3 months. They would help us with tutoring the children who are kindergarten through 6th grade. All of the children speak English, and are either in a French or Spanish program at their school (Elsie Stokes, located about 10 minutes from the after school location. This is just across the Catholic University/Brookland metro stop). The after school program lasts from 3:00 to about 6:00.

Contact: (202) 635-9025 / casademary@aol.com / www.maryhouse.org
4303 13th Street NE, Washington, DC 20017

Miriam's Kitchen
Miriam’s Kitchen is committed to ending chronic homelessness in DC by creating meaningful connections with chronically homeless individuals, placing them in permanent supportive housing, and ensuring they have the necessary support to remain in housing. Miriam’s Kitchen advocates for permanent supportive housing as a long-term solution, while meeting short-term needs by providing healthy meals and high-quality social services to more than 3,500 chronically homeless individuals each year. Volunteer opportunities include serving meals, preparing meals, and assisting case managers.

Contact: Jennifer Dean, (202) 452-8926 / jdean@miriamskitchen.org / www.miriamskitchen.org
2401 Virginia Ave, NW, Washington, DC 20037

My Sister's Place*
As DC's oldest domestic violence shelter, My Sister's Place provides comprehensive programs and services that holistically address domestic violence and the unique challenges survivors face. These include a confidential 24-hour hotline, emergency shelter and transitional-to-permanent housing, therapeutic children's programming, after-care services, residential and non-residential counseling and case-management, community outreach and education in English and Spanish, and referrals to our community partners based on each survivor's individual needs. Volunteers can work with children, in administration, or with fundraising.

Contact: (202) 529-5261 / volunteer@mysistersplacedc.org / www.mysistersplacedc.org

N Street Village
N Street Village is a community of empowerment and recovery for homeless and low-income women in Washington, D.C. With comprehensive services addressing both emergency and long-term needs, N Street Village helps women achieve personal stability and make gains in their housing, income, employment, mental health, physical health, and addiction recovery. Individual volunteers can work directly with clients or behind the scenes to help keep the organization running smoothly.

Updated 2/25/2016
Volunteers work as learning lab monitors and tutors, prepare and serve lunches and dinners, pick up donations, help maintain the courtyard garden, assist on overnight shifts in our shelter, help with fundraising and event planning, and offer their professional health services to women in our Wellness Center.

Contact:
(202) 939-2076 / volunteer@nstreetvillage.org / www.nstreetvillage.org
1333 N St. NW, Washington, DC 20005

National Alliance to End Homelessness

The National Alliance to End Homelessness is a leading voice on the issue of homelessness. The Alliance analyzes policy and develops pragmatic, cost-effective policy solutions. The Alliance works collaboratively with the public, private, and nonprofit sectors to build state and local capacity, leading to stronger programs and policies that help communities achieve their goal of ending homelessness. We provide data and research to policymakers and elected officials in order to inform policy debates and educate the public and opinion leader nationwide.

Contact: (202) 638-1526 / naeh@naeh.org / www.endhomelessness.org
1518 K St, NW, Suite 410, Washington, DC 20005

Neighbors’ Consejo*

Established in 1994, Neighbors’ Consejo is the only Latino, bilingual, and multicultural agency specializing in the prevention of homelessness in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area. Neighbors’ Consejo is committed to helping homeless men and women who suffer from addiction, alcoholism and mental health problems. Volunteers are needed for outreach, computer literacy, intake and fundraising.

Contact: Natalia Valencia, (202) 234-6855x210/info@neighborsconsejo.org / www.neighborsconsejo.org
3118 16th St NW, Washington, DC 20009 (Columbia Heights metro)

The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army National Capital Area Command serves the nation’s capital and its surrounding communities with programs and locations that serve families in need with emergency assistance, housing, substance abuse treatment, youth enrichment opportunities, spiritual care, and emergency disaster services.

Contact: Emily Norton, (202) 756-3906 / Emily_norton@uss.salvationarmy.org / www.salarmydc.org
2626 Pennsylvania Ave, Washington, DC 20037

Samaritan Inns

Samaritan Inns' mission is to provide structured housing and recovery services in an environment of support and accountability that will give homeless and addicted men and women the opportunity to rebuild their lives. Volunteers are needed for beautification, dinner fellowship, and other special projects.

Contact: Corey Townsend, corey@samaritaninns.org, (202) 667-8831 / www.samaritaninns.org
2523 14th St, NW, Washington, DC 20009

SHARE D.C.

SHARE Food Network is an amazing and unique program that is open to everyone. SHARE distributes high quality affordable and nutritious food as a way to build community and strengthen families.

Contact: Ms. Twitty, (301) 864-3115x011 / ninochika.twitty@catholiccharitiesdc.org / www.sharedc.org
5170 Lawrence Place, Hyattsville, MD 20781

Shepherd's Table

Shepherd’s Table’s mission is to provide help to people who are homeless or in need by providing basic services, including meals, social services, and medical support, clothing, and other assistance in an effective and compassionate manner. Volunteers are needed in the dining room, for food pick-up, for the clothes closet, and at the resource center.

Contact: (301) 585-6463 / info@shepherdstable.org / www.shepherdstable.org
8210A Dixon Avenue, Silver Spring, Maryland 20910

So Others Might Eat (SOME)

SOME moves the men, women and families we serve from crisis to stability, despair to hope, and dependence to self-sufficiency. Our model has three levels of care and support: Emergency, rebuilding, and stability. Volunteer opportunities include administrative work, professional services, elderly services, tutoring, food services, landscaping, and special occasion planning.

Contact: (202) 797-8806 / www.some.org / volunteer@some.org
71 O St, NW, Washington, DC 20001

Updated 2/25/2016
Thrive DC
Thrive DC serves anyone in need, providing services to men and women of all ages, backgrounds, races, and ethnicities. The individuals who come through their doors often face multiple, complex barriers to a more stable life. Some face hunger or illness, and often are lonely and hopeless. Many are diagnosed with mental illness, and some struggle with substance abuse. Others have been victims of domestic violence and/or sexual assault. A majority of our clients are living with chronic health problems-often without regular access to crucial medical care. Volunteers can help in our Breakfast program (8 - 11), Dinner Program (4 - 6), Computer Lab (10 - 5), or with our Employment Services. Visit their website at www.thrivedc.org/volunteer to get started.

Contact: Greg Rockwell (202) 503-1528 / volunteer@thrivedc.org / www.thrivedc.org
1525 Newton St. NW Suite G1, Washington, DC 20010