September 2019 update

Are you faced with any of the following?

- Dramatic increase in international students (F, J, and diplomatic visas) at your high school in the past few years
- Limited resources for support & training services (ESL, designated director of international students, housing, SEVP/SEVIS compliance, cross-cultural sensitivity training, teaching non-native speakers)
- Managing international student and family expectations
- Understanding U.S. universities' differing admission requirements for international applicants
- Helping international high school students overcome challenges & market their strengths

You are not alone!

According to the IIE Center for Academic Mobility Research and Impact (www.iie.org/research-and-publications):

- The number of international secondary students in the U.S. more than tripled from 2004 to 2016
- 72% (almost 60,000) F-1 students in U.S. high schools as of 2016 plan to enroll in U.S. higher education institutions after secondary studies
- Top 6 sending countries of origin for F-1 students in 2016: China, South Korea, Vietnam, Mexico, Japan, & Canada

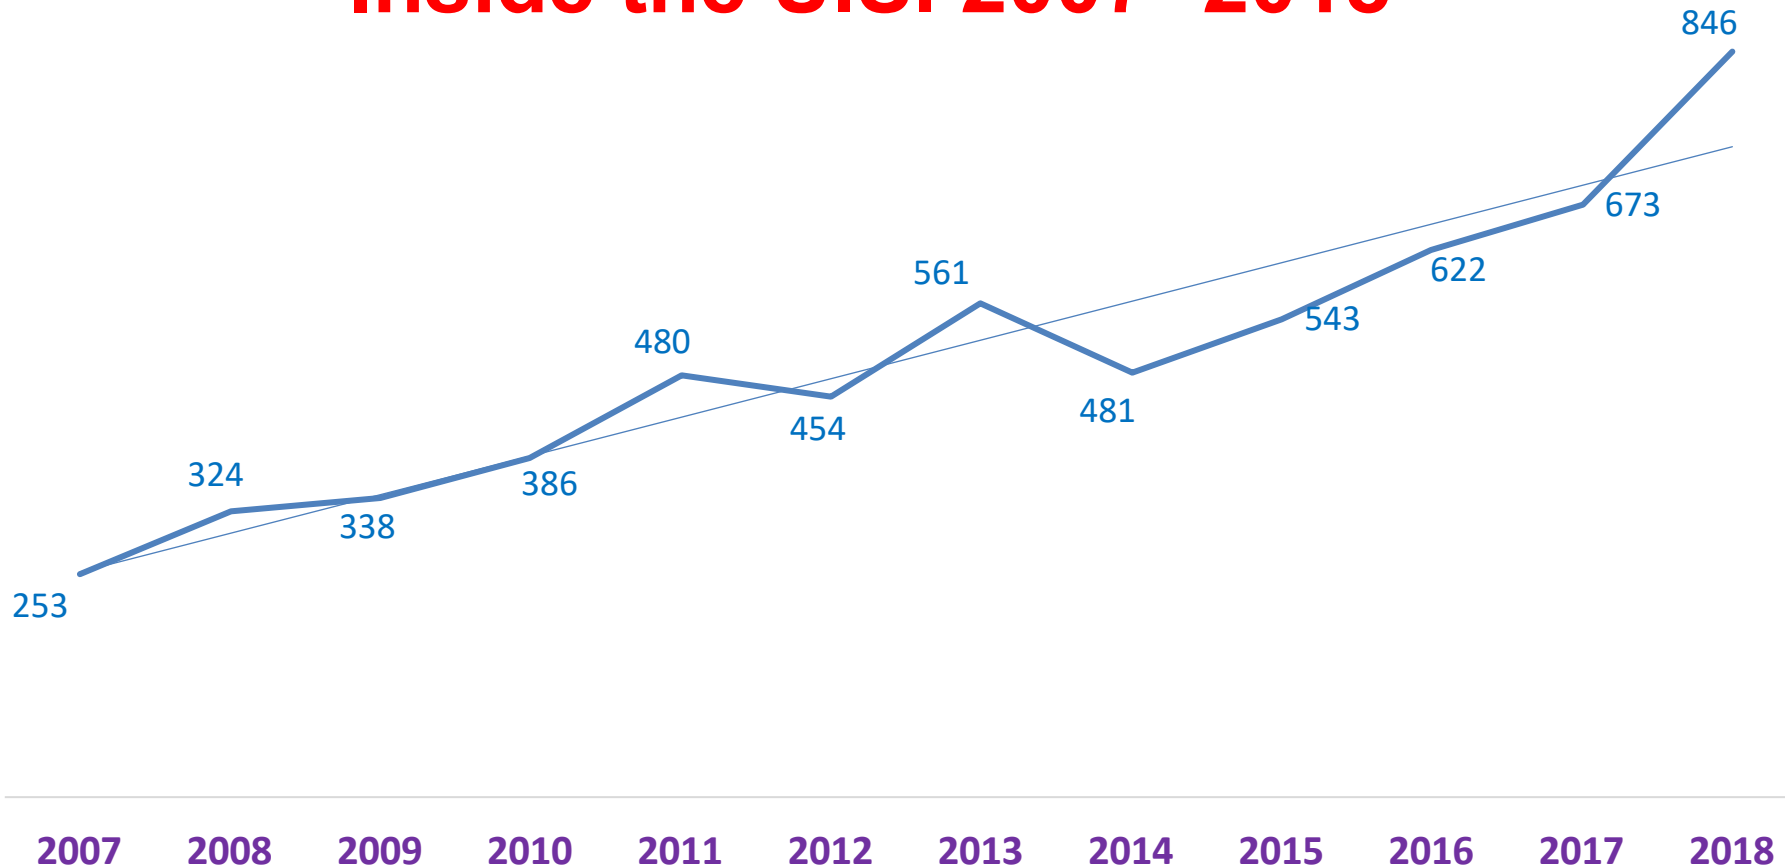

Where do Int'l Secondary Students Study?

- By type of school, 2016: 94% study in private high schools (boarding schools, schools with religious affiliations, private day schools with home stays)
- Top 10 U.S. states, 2016: California, NY, Massachusetts, Florida, Pennsylvania, Texas, Connecticut, NJ, Virginia, Michigan
- By host countries, 2016: U.S. (81,981), Canada (44,510), UK (27,633), Australia (22,265)

International Applications to AU from Inside the U.S. 2007- 2018

The AU Response – Currently in Place...

- Analyze 3-year data trends: Identify domestic high schools with int'l applications
- Schedule meetings with domestic colleagues to review data & talking points
- Increase outreach: Domestic admissions identifies opportunities to reach out to int'l students, school and independent counselors within their territories i.e. visit ESL centers, HS ISSS or ELI staff.
- Train domestic team on int'l admissions 101: TOEFL/IELTS, SAT/ACT/Test Optional, China credentials, overview of F/J visa regulations, SEVIS
- Create virtual resource corner for counselors inside and outside the U.S.
www.American.edu/admissions/international/counselor-resources.cfm

The AU Response – Recommendations for the Future....

- Host counselors: Invite U.S. school counselors with larger clusters of intl's to special fall or spring domestic travel events
- Host panels of current AU int'l students prior to fall & spring travel to help domestic-team better articulate int'l experiences & opportunities to counselors and int'l prospects in their territories.
- Create a sub-team and provide in-depth training to 3-5 int'l admissions "experts" among our domestic admissions' colleagues to serve as front-line resources for entire domestic team.
- Join domestic team for visits to local 2-year colleges to strengthen int'l transfer pipelines.

Top Five Factors in the Admission Decision for Int'l Students

(per NACAC's fall 2016 Admission Trend Surveys)

1 – English proficiency exam scores

in order to receive AU I-20 or DS-2019

Via Curriculum:

- Four years of study (grades 9, 10, 11, and 12 or equivalent) in U.S.-accredited or IB, CXC, or UK curricula (inside/outside the U.S.) where English is the only medium of instruction AND no ESL courses have been taken
- Four years of study (grades 9, 10, 11, and 12 or equivalent) in selected English-speaking countries* or in the educational systems of these countries* (regardless of location) where English is the only medium of instruction AND no ESL courses have been taken

English speaking countries include: US, UK, Ireland, Scotland, Australia, New Zealand, and Canada (except Quebec)*

SAT/ACT or Test Optional for AU?

It depends!

- The SAT or ACT is required of all applicants, including int'l students, who are graduating high school inside the U.S. unless student chooses to go “Test Optional” for standardized testing
- “Test Optional” does not refer to proof of English proficiency.
- F-1 & J-1 students must still prove English proficiency through TOEFL, IELTS, PTE, etc.
- “Test Optional” does not put students at a disadvantage for admissions consideration when other application components are strong

When to consider “Test Optional” for your international student:

- Less than 4 years in an all-English curriculum
- Very recent transition to English-language curriculum
- Completed many ESL classes at a U.S. high school
- TOEFL, IELTS, PTE scores are at the low end of AU’s minimum requirements

AU Transition Programs

International students who do not meet AU English proficiency or GPA requirements for direct entry may be recommended for IAP or American Collegiate in their denial letter. This is only available for students who meet IAP or American Collegiate minimum requirements:

- International Accelerator Program at American University (IAP) is a demanding one-year transition program that combines intensive English language instruction with coursework and supplemental resources that help fully integrate students into the university and their campus community. IAP provides a pathway program that is designed to prepare students for degree-seeking status at AU.
- American Collegiate Program at AU: This non-degree program is intended for first-year students who seek the academic, cultural, and English-language support to succeed at very competitive U.S. universities. Based at American University, students pursue a program that includes two to three semesters of credit-bearing course work, along with English language and other support. Additionally, these students receive counseling to facilitate a seamless transfer to any university, including AU.
