

BAKER SCHOOL of EDUCATION
AMERICAN UNIVERSITY • WASHINGTON, DC

DOCTORATE OF EDUCATION IN EDUCATION POLICY & LEADERSHIP

Prepares working PK-12
and higher ed leaders to advance their career and transform education.

Prepares graduates for careers in:

- Educational instruction
- Organizational leadership
- Policymaking
- Higher education and student affairs

Provide students with an opportunity to reach your full potential and be a force for positive social change. Be part of a new approach to education leadership and policy to bring hope and action to schools. This degree empowers education leaders who have the practical experience and theoretical knowledge to effect widespread, progressive change in education. Join our network of 103 doctors of education (as of 2025).

40 Credits

Just 3
Years to Complete

Online
With 3 On-Campus
Residencies

Cohort
Learning

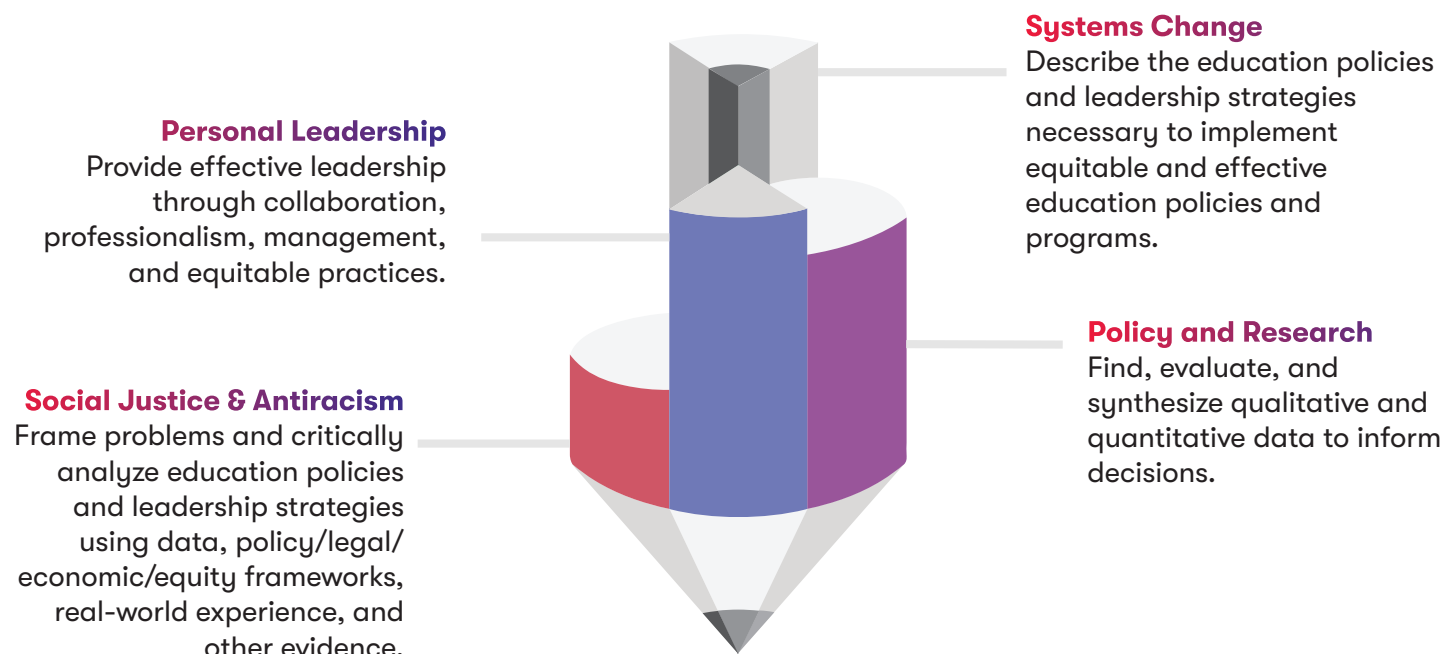

Learn More

www.american.edu/baker

DOCTORATE OF EDUCATION IN EDUCATION POLICY & LEADERSHIP

PROGRAM PILLARS

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

This degree is part of The Carnegie Project on the Education Doctorate, a framework preparing our educational leaders to be well-equipped scholarly practitioners to meet the educational challenges of the 21st century.

The Cohort Experience
Students will progress through the program as group, taking the same courses, and accomplishing program milestones together. Cohorts are intentionally diverse to contribute to the dynamic learning environment in the program.

Students enrolled in the program represent various fields, including school administration, teaching, school district leadership, consulting, policymaking, advocacy, and the law.

BAKER SCHOOL of EDUCATION
AMERICAN UNIVERSITY • WASHINGTON, DC

