

BAKER SCHOOL of EDUCATION
AMERICAN UNIVERSITY • WASHINGTON, DC

MASTER OF EDUCATION IN EDUCATION POLICY & LEADERSHIP

Drive social change through education policy.

Become a trusted leader with the skills and knowledge to effect change at local, state, and federal levels. Learn how to evaluate, create, and implement effective policy that facilitates exceptional learning experiences for all students and transforms systems for a brighter and more equitable future. Translate your desire to change the course of American education into actionable steps that have a true impact through innovative, evidence-based, and antiracist programs and policies. Focused on policy, leadership, law, economics, equity, and research, the program will prepare you to transform societies. Join a network of American University faculty, students, and alumni who are reshaping education in the United States.

30 Credits

Just 2 Years to Complete

On-Campus

Or Online

No GRE
Test Required

MASTER OF EDUCATION IN EDUCATION POLICY & LEADERSHIP

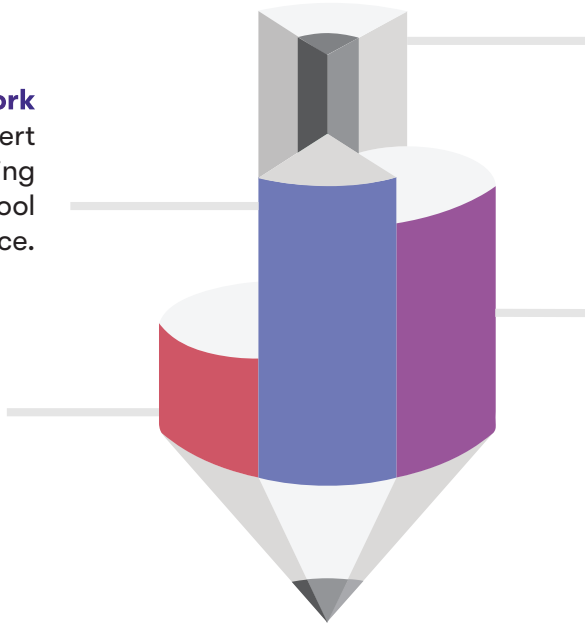

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

The Washington DC Network

Full-time faculty and expert practitioners in DC bring policy, research, and school experience.

Policy Implementation

Special emphasis is placed on implementation and connecting policy to education practice.

Practical Experiences

Students apply skills learned in semester-long, field-based projects with DC education and policy organizations including project management, client relations, analytic design, and project presentation.

Career Support

Ongoing support for identifying career pathways and opportunities, such as career panels and one-on-one career counseling

CLASS PROFILE

Job Titles of Alumni

- Assessment Coordinator
- Dean of Academics
- Director of Curriculum & Instruction
- Director of Inclusion
- Director of New Program Design
- Early Literacy Coordinator
- Education Program Manager
- Instructional Coach
- Principal
- Teacher

Graduate Placement

96% placement rate in the workforce or graduate school within 6 months of graduation

The School of Education is Ranked in the top

7% of the Best Education Schools in the US by College Factual's 2023 Rankings

