Below you’ll find a snapshot of databases and periodicals that you, as an AU community member, have access to.

Databases:
Access links and instructions to the following databases (and many more!) can be found on the AU Library’s A-Z Database List.

- Cabell’s Directories of Publishing Opportunities - Cabell’s helps authors easily find more information about journals in many science and social science fields. Cabell’s includes two products, Whitelist and Blacklist. The Whitelist includes information about the most recent year's academic journals to help authors select a journal for manuscript submission, and includes a description of the review process, acceptance rate, and manuscript topics, as well as a snapshot of journal metrics. The Blacklist includes information about possible predatory journal publishers using an evaluative model to identify potential violations, such as false claims made on the journal’s website.

- Career and Technical Education - Provides abstracts and full text from more than 500 full-text magazine, journal, and trade titles addressing all aspects of career studies. (Click BROWSE to look through journals offered!)

- Chronicle of Higher Education - An important news source for college and university personnel that focuses on issues related to higher education.

- CQ Magazine - Comprehensive source for coverage of the U.S. Congress: status of bills, votes and amendments, floor and committee activity, backroom maneuvering, and in-depth reports on issues looming on the congressional horizon.

- Creativity-Online.com - Online access to Creativity, a sibling publication to Advertising Age that focuses on the creative community in advertising, marketing and design. Includes the annual "Creativity Awards Report" that compiles results from the seven most significant advertising awards shows: ADC, AICP, ANDYS, Cannes, Clios, D&AD, and One Show.

- Credo Instruct – contains multimedia materials that provide instruction on critical thinking and information literacy skills.

- CRS Reports - Congressional Research Service Reports provide a variety of in-depth policy analysis and background summaries on every subject of interest to Congress.

- DSM Online - The online version of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (includes the DSM-5 manual) is the authoritative guide to psychological disorders currently recognized by the American Psychiatric Association. The manual is browsable by alphabetical listing, numerical listing, and by disorder type. Sections can be downloaded to PDA, e-mailed as a link, and/or printed.
Economist.com - Authoritative weekly newspaper focusing on international politics and business news and opinion.

Leadership Connect - directory of 400,000 individuals in U.S. federal, state, and local governments, news media, law firms, business, and non-profit organizations. Also includes foreign representatives in the U.S. Updated daily.

LinkedIn Learning - Online training and courses in such subjects as Photoshop, Flash, Dreamweaver, Illustrator, Office, digital photography, Web design, digital video, and more.

Pivot - Search research funding opportunities and match these with researchers within or outside your organization. Set up individual alerts for new funding opportunities and track amongst individual researchers or teams. Updated daily with vetted information from funding sources.

PressReader - Most recent two months of over 400 U.S. and international newspapers, many in foreign languages. All newspapers are in their entirety and are available on the day they are published. Includes but not limited to:

- Newsweek
- LA Times
- Rolling Stone
- Inc.
- TES (Times Educational Supplement)
- Fast Company
