Jack Kent Cooke Graduate Scholarship
http://www.jackkentcookefoundation.org

Description
The Foundation awards up to 35 graduate scholarships annually to outstanding students from across the nation. Students must be nominated by their institutions. U.S. universities may nominate up to two seniors or alumni who have graduated within the last five years for the competition. The awards provide funding for tuition, room and board, required fees and books. Scholarship length and amounts will vary for each recipient based on several factors, including costs at the institution he or she attends and the degree sought; awards cannot exceed $50,000 annually or six years. Scholars may use the award to attend any accredited graduate school in the U.S. or abroad to pursue any graduate degree or any professional degree, including medicine, law, or business. The application deadline for the 2004-2005 academic year is April 30, 2004.

Eligibility
- U.S. Citizen or Permanent Resident
- Strong Academic Record, 3.5 minimum
- Senior or Alumni (who has graduated in the past five years)
- Demonstrated Financial Need

Application Requirements To be considered for a university nomination, please submit the following to the Office of Merit Awards, Career Center, 5th Floor Butler Pavilion, by December 18, 2003:
- A cover letter (addressed to Cooke Graduate Fellowship Selection Committee) expressing your interest in and qualifications for the scholarship;
- Academic transcripts from all colleges and universities attended (unofficial copies are permitted);
- A resume;
- Names and contact information for three faculty who know you well;
- A paper you have written for a class (topic and length are unimportant; however, you should pick something that demonstrates your potential for graduate study).

Deadline/Submission Date
DECEMBER 18, 2003