Please answer each of the following questions in 200 words or 1,200 characters or less.

1. Based on your knowledge of his life and legacy, why would Frederick Douglass believe that you are uniquely deserving of a scholarship bearing his name?

2. How will you use your career to make a difference and improve the quality of life for underserved, under-resourced populations?

3. Outside of your career plans, describe the type of person you hope to become.

4. Describe a challenge you've faced in your life. What did you learn from the experience that has made you a better person?

5. Describe any experience conducting academic research or participating in high school sports. What research or athletic interests would you explore at American University?
