

AU

SCHOLARS

WHAT IS AU SCHOLARS?

---

A selective, living-learning community with exclusive programs that fosters creativity, critical thinking, and problem solving skills.

PROGRAM COMPONENTS

---

High-achieving students

Living-Learning
Community

Exclusive Seminars & Modules

Spring Research

SCHOLARS SEMINARS

---

Exclusively for AUSC

Faculty Taught

20 students per seminar

Fulfill a GenEd requirement

FIRST YEAR SEMINARS

Comparative Politics • Cross-Cultural Communication • The Great Books • Do The Right Thing • Social Change Through Social Media • U.S. Law and Legal Systems • Understanding Media • The Global Marketplace • Social Forces that Shaped America • Views from the Global South • Why Aren't We Dead Yet?

LABS & MODULES

---

In-depth exploration of keys issues

Collaborate with scholars in other seminars

Utilize DC as a resource

MODULES FOR 2014

Interpreting History on the National Mall • Identity in DC •
Food Policymaking in DC • Oral History Workshop • Documentaries to Shock, Inspire and Activate • How to Save the World, One NGO at a Time • Morality in a Modern Global World • Successful Corporations • Let Freedom Ring • Preparing for a Global Health Case Competition • Ethics in the High School Classroom • Where Do You Stand? • Making Nation: Memorializing War • Great Trials • Legal or Not? What We Think and Why • No Spring Without Flowers • Constructing Graphic Narratives • Cross-Cultural Conflict Resolution • Profits or Sustainable Practices? • How Doing the Right Thing Can Seem So Wrong • We Prefer Being Informed by Clowns Instead of Journalists

LABS & MODULES

---

Weeks 1–2: Seminar Lab

Weeks 3–6: Ses. I Modules

Week 7–8: Seminar Lab

Weeks 9–12: Ses. II
Modules

Week 13–15: Seminar Lab

SPRING RESEARCH

---

Creative research projects led by faculty
with graduate research assistants

Pathway to Honors in the Major

LIVING & LEARNING

Letts Hall

LIVING- LEARNING

---

Extends learning
beyond the classroom

Be part of a community / cohort

Additional support
from RD, RA & PA

BEYOND AU

---

DC experience

Study Abroad

Internships

Career Center

Merit Awards

Questions?

Kiho Kim (kiho@american.edu; 202-885-2181)
american.edu/provost/auscholars