

MES@AU

MIDDLE EAST STUDIES

India, Israel and the Wider Middle East: Squaring the Circle

Professor P.R. Kumaraswamy

Wednesday, September 15th

10-12 Noon, Battelle 248

We welcome Professor P. R. Kumaraswamy to AU to talk about his new book, India's Israel Policy (Columbia University Press) and wider India/Middle East relations.

P.R. Kumaraswamy is a professor of contemporary Middle Eastern history in the School of International Studies at Jawaharlal Nehru University (New Dehli, India) and Chairperson of the Center for West Asian Studies at JNU. He has written extensively on the political relationship between the East and Middle East. Professor Kumaraswamy's works focuses on contemporary issues in West Asian Studies. He researches, writes and teaches about the region and its political and security developments.

Breakfast Served

Cosponsored by:

For more information, contact Professor Yael Warshel, warshel@american.edu, Professor Diane Singerman, MES@AU Co-Director at dsinger@american.edu, or Laura Cutler, CIS Deputy Director at cutler@american.edu

