

Community Service Center Mary Graydon 273 (202) 885 - SERV www.american.edu/volunteer

Community Development

We Recommend...

Latino Economic Development Center (LEDC)

LEDC is a community-based economic development organization whose mission is to drive the economic and social advancement of low to moderate income Latinos and other underserved residents in the Washington metropolitan area by providing the educational and financial resources they need to achieve financial independence. LEDC's vision for inclusive, just, and self-sustaining communities is built upon a foundation of stable housing and thriving small businesses, and this foundation is helping more people become actively invested and engaged in their communities.

Contact: (202) 588-5102 www.ledcmetro.org

Center for Community Change

Center for Community Change mission is to build the power and capacity of low-income people, especially low-income people of color, to have a profound impact in improving their communities and the policies and institutions that affect their lives.

Contact info: (202) 339-9300 / info@communitychange.org / www.communitychange.org
1536 U Street NW, Washington, DC 20009

Central American Resource Center of Washington, DC (CARECEN)

CARECEN is a community based organization which offers legal, educational, housing, citizenship and civic participation programs to the Central American/Latino community. Volunteers help conduct citizenship classes, hold mock interviews, help fill out applications, lead field trips, facilitate discussions, and register voters.

Contact: 202) 328-9799 / www.carecencdc.org
1460 Columbia RD, NW, Washington DC, 20009 (Columbia Heights Metro)

Citizens for Global Solutions

Citizens for Global Solution mission to build political will in the United States in order to achieve their vision. They do this by educating the citizens about global interdependence, communicating global concerns to public officials, and develop proposals to create, strengthen, and reform international institutions such as the United Nations.

Contact: (202) 546-3950 / www.globalsolutions.org / 420 7th St SE, Washington, DC 20003

Coalition for Smarter Growth

Coalition for Smart Growth wants to ensure that transportation and development decisions accommodate growth while regenerating communities, providing more housing and travel choices, and conserving our natural and historic areas. Volunteer opportunities include event assistance, photography, filming, graphic design and web design.

Contact: (202) 675-0016 / www.smartergrowth.net / 316 F Street NE – Suite 200, Washington, D.C. 20002

Community Foodworks

Community Foodworks is dedicated to creating market opportunities for local farmers and food producers in the mid-Atlantic region while increasing access to good, healthy, local food. Community Foodworks operates farmers markets across Wards 1, 2, 4, 5, & 7, and also runs educational programs.

Contact: Dalila Boclin, Food Access Director / dboclin@cfwdc.org / volunteer@cfwdc.org
Office location: 810 7th Street NE, Washington, DC 20002

Fair Chance

Fair Chance was founded in 2002 to guarantee that all children living in poverty have access to resources such as quality programs that will enable them to reach their future endeavors. Fair Chance believes that every child in the District of Columbia should be given the opportunity to succeed. Their mission is to strengthen the sustainability of nonprofit organizations and their leaders to change the lives of children and youth living in poverty.

Contact: (202) 467-2420/ www.fairchance.org / 2001 S. St. NW Suite 310, Washington, D.C. 20009

DC Employment Justice Center

The D.C. Employment Justice Center protects and promotes the legal rights of low-wage workers in the DC metro area. To ensure that all workers are treated equally in the workplace, the EJC uses knowledgeable employment law attorneys and policy advocates to provide high-quality, free legal advice and assistance to low-wage workers and push for modifications in the workplace fairness laws. Volunteer opportunities include advocacy, workers rights clinics, administrative support, education programs.

Contact: (202) 828-9675 / justice@dcejc.org / www.dcejc.org
1413 K Street NW, Washington, DC 20005

Goodwill of Greater Washington

DC Goodwill's mission is to transform lives and communities through the power of education and employment. They're building a community where people are empowered to achieve their fullest potential and rise to the highest level of personal successes. Since 1902, volunteers have been the spine of Goodwill's mission of assisting people with disabilities and disadvantages get jobs. They provide a volunteer packet that will help individuals learn about their agency and the work they do to benefit the community.

Contact: (202) 715-2658/ www.dcgoodwill.org
2200 South Dakota Ave NE, Washington, DC 20018

GREEN DMV

Green DMV was founded in 2007. Since its founding, they have developed successful programs to serve disadvantaged communities. Green DMV promotes sustainability in low-income neighborhoods as a pathway out of poverty. They believe that by helping underserved communities to realize the true benefit of clean energy, they can increase the vitality of small business community, educate the next generation on environmental stewardship, and strengthen the effectiveness of community stakeholders. They are fueled by the passion to ensure that the green economy is inclusive to all people.

Contact: www.greendmvfoundation.org / (888) 625-4440/ www.greendmv.org / 4409 South Capitol Street, SW

LIFT

LIFT is a growing movement to combat poverty and expand opportunity for all people in the United States. Our mission is to alleviate poverty in DC and our country for engaging our nation's college students in this effort. LIFT recruits and trains a diverse corps of undergraduates who make rigorous and sustained commitment to service while in school. This volunteer corps operates a national network of service centers, where they work side by side with low-income individuals and their families to find jobs secure safe and stable housing make ends meet through public benefits and tax credits and acquire critical support like healthcare and childcare.

Contact: (202) 289-1151 / info@liftcommunities.org / www.liftcommunities.org
1620 I St NW, Suite 820, Washington, D.C. 20006

Neighbors Consejo

Established in 1994, Neighbors' Consejo is the only Latino, bilingual, and multicultural agency specializing in the prevention of homelessness in the Washington, D. C. metropolitan area. Neighbors' Consejo is committed to helping homeless men and women who suffer from addiction, alcoholism and mental health problems. Volunteers are needed for outreach, computer literacy, intake and fundraising.

Contact: (202) 234-6855 / www.neighborsc.org/ 6323 Georgia Ave NW Suite 206, Washington, D.C. 20011

One DC

Our DC's mission is to exercise political strength to create and preserve racial and economic equity in Shaw and the District. With volunteer opportunities in housing, income, wellness, and education, you can learn how to be the change and make the changes needed for justice and equity to be a reality in this city and this world!

Contact: (202) 232-2915 / www.onedonline.org
614 S Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20001