Central American Resource Center of Washington, DC (CARECEN)

Interested in helping Central Americans immigrants become U.S. Citizens? This is a great opportunity to learn about the citizenship process, use your Spanish, interact with the local Central American community and gain experience in a grassroots non-profit. Opportunities include: Impact Evaluation and Voter Outreach: Help CARECEN ensure that all our newest citizens are registered to vote by November! Conduct follow-up surveys to evaluate our services and determine the mid to long-term impacts of naturalization. This is a very flexible opportunity, but requires highly proficient Spanish over the phone. Depending on Spanish level and your availability, you may also have the opportunity to interpret at a USCIS interview. Tutoring Individual applicants: Help individual students ace the naturalization exam by providing individual ESL and/or civics tutoring. Requires a consistent commitment and basic Spanish. Citizenship Program Support: Don't speak Spanish? You can still help support our classes, develop classroom activities, record practice dialogues in English, and conduct outreach and referral research, and support our advocacy efforts!
