

Student Learning Outcomes

- Increased retention rates

- Positive effect on personal development - identity, spiritual growth & moral development
- Positive effect on interpersonal development
- Enhanced leadership, communication, and critical thinking skills

- Increased interest in related work or internships, specifically in the non-profit sector

- Reduces stereotypes
- Facilitates cross cultural, class, and racial understandings
- Builds social/civic responsibility and citizenship
- Increases awareness of the world

- Improves students' ability to apply lessons to the real world
- Increased interest in subject matter
- Increased engagement in the classroom
- Improved writing skills