Program Assessment Plan
American University
Academic Program: CAS: Literature - MA

Contact Person for Assessment: Anita Gilman Sherman

Unit's Primary Department: Literature
COLA Reader -1: Daniel Kerr
COLA Reader -2: Kathy McAdams

Learning Outcome: Content Knowledge
Students will be able to demonstrate broad knowledge of literary genres and periods.

Outcome Year: 2010-2011
Start Date: 11/19/2010
Outcome Status: Active Learning Outcome

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assessment Measure</th>
<th>Target</th>
<th>Schedule/Cycle</th>
<th>Active</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>All comprehensive examinations will be evaluated for students' knowledge of genres and periods. Graduate faculty Assessment report to be included in Annual Department Report. Measure Type: Quiz/ Exam</td>
<td>Most exams will pass.</td>
<td>Every year.</td>
<td>Yes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If we are providing students with these skills, it follows that they will qualify for admission to strong PhD programs and jobs. We will follow up with students after they graduate to see where they are accepted for PhD programs, and where they are employed after graduation. MA Director will track graduates of the program and note in particular the graduate programs and jobs they attain. The program has created a Facebook page for the program better to communicate with our graduates. Measure Type: Alumni Feedback</td>
<td>No target identified.</td>
<td>Continuous evaluation by MA Director.</td>
<td>Yes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Professors will examine comprehensive exams and rate them as &quot;satisfactory&quot; or &quot;unsatisfactory&quot; or with &quot;distinction.&quot; Measure Type: Final Paper/ Final Project</td>
<td>Over half of the papers that are examined should be judged outstanding (distinction) by the evaluators.</td>
<td></td>
<td>Yes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Related Action Steps
* Supporting Assessment: In 2012, 4 MA alumni received fellowships for doctoral programs at Princeton, Santa Cruz, Kansas, Ne Description: All comprehensive examinations will be evaluated for students' knowledge of genres and periods. Syllabi for courses in which graduate students are enrolled will be reviewed to make sure that breadth is being taught. Meetings with instructors of all graduate courses to discuss the extent to which faculty think these goals have been achieved.
If we are providing students with these skills, it follows that they will qualify for admission to strong PhD programs and jobs. We will follow up with students after they graduate to see where they are accepted for PhD programs, and where they are employed after graduation.
Learning Outcome: Critical Analysis

Students will be able to deploy skills of critical analysis:
Formulating a rich and nuanced argument;
Critical thinking;
Ability to close read a text;
Ability to connect their understanding to a theoretical position.

Outcome Year: 2010-2011
Start Date: 11/19/2010
Outcome Status: Active Learning Outcome

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assessment Measure</th>
<th>Target</th>
<th>Schedule/Cycle</th>
<th>Active</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>All comprehensive examinations will be evaluated for students' knowledge of genres and periods. Graduate faculty Assessment report to be included in Annual Department Report.</td>
<td>Most exams will pass.</td>
<td>Every year.</td>
<td>Yes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Measure Type: Quiz/ Exam

If we are providing students with these skills, it follows that they will qualify for admission to strong PhD programs and jobs. We will follow up with students after they graduate to see where they are accepted for PhD programs, and where they are employed after graduation.
MA Director will track graduates of the program and note in particular the graduate programs and jobs they attain.
The program has created a Facebook page for the program better to communicate with our graduates.

Measure Type: Alumni Feedback

Related Action Steps

* Supporting Assessment: The passing rate on the comp exam; juried competition for Graduate Essay prizes;

Description: Members of the faculty read a sampling of mentored scholarly essays and Master's theses to assess whether the learning outcomes are being achieved. They review the Comprehensive Exams as well.

Learning Outcome: Scholarly Conversation

Students will be able to situate their arguments within a scholarly conversation, commensurate with the track they are following in the program.

Outcome Year: 2010-2011
Start Date: 11/19/2010
Outcome Status: Active Learning Outcome

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assessment Measure</th>
<th>Target</th>
<th>Schedule/Cycle</th>
<th>Active</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| If we are providing students with these skills, it follows that they will qualify for admission to strong PhD programs and jobs. We will follow up with students after they graduate to see where they are accepted for PhD programs, and where they are employed after graduation.
MA Director will track graduates of the program and note in particular the graduate programs and jobs they attain.
The program has created a Facebook page for the program better to communicate with our graduates. | No target identified. | Continuous evaluation by MA Director. | Yes |

Measure Type: Alumni Feedback

Related Action Steps

* Supporting Assessment: Princeton, Indiana, Kansas, Nebraska, UC Riverside, UC Santa Cruz, Illinois/Champagne-Urbana made of

Description: Syllabi will be examined to ensure that secondary criticism is incorporated into the work of the course and that all 500 and 600-level classes, as well as 700-level seminars include secondary reading. Mentored essays and theses will be sampled to make sure these goals are met. Faculty will meet to discuss the extent to which they think these goals have been achieved. If we are providing students with these skills, it follows that they will qualify for admission to strong PhD programs and jobs. We will follow up with students after they graduate to see where they are accepted for PhD programs, and where they are employed after graduation.