Please answer the following questions to the best of your knowledge. (Use additional paper if necessary.)

1. How long and in what capacity have you known the applicant?

2. Do the student's grades reflect his/her ability and effort?

3. Why would you recommend this student for scholarship consideration to the Discover the World of Communication?

I have reviewed the Discover the World of Communication brochure or website at www.audiscover.org, and am familiar with the above student applying for a scholarship. This student is highly motivated and works to make a positive difference in our school community. I believe the above student would contribute to the diversity of the Discover the World of Communication student body. This student has the maturity to live on a university campus and work with other students in an academic and social environment. I hereby recommend this student for a DWC scholarship.
