

Aaron Alberico

Aaron grew up in the Chicago Suburbs of Illinois and is now a senior at American University's School of Public Affairs, in Washington, D.C., where he is majoring in Political Science with a concentration in American Government. Aaron has interned on multiple campaigns, on Capitol Hill, and currently works part-time at a D.C. based lobby firm.

Noah Benjamin

Noah Benjamin, a Junior in both SPA and CAS, is a double major in Political Science, with a concentration in American Government, and Chemistry. Noah served on the Executive Boards of several student organizations including the Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity, the Inter-Fraternity Council, and AUPAC Students for Israel.

Barton Thompson

Barton Thompson is from Princeton NJ. After attending the University of San Francisco for two years, he took time off to work as a cabinet makers apprentice. After closely following the news on the national healthcare debate, he decided to pursue his interest in politics at American University. Bart is passionate about the strategy of campaigns, and progressive domestic policy.

Josh Roll

Joshua Roll is a Framingham Massachusetts native and is graduating in May from American University with a Bachelors degree in Political Science. His past work experience includes internships with AARP, AFL-CIO, and the American Association for Justice. After graduation he plans to live in Washington DC and peruse a career in politics.

Garret Bonosky

Garret (SPA '12) is currently the Executive Assistant to Special Counsel to New York Governor Cuomo. Previously, Garret has worked at the Democratic National Committee, in New York Lieutenant Governor Duffy's administration and on the Lieutenant Governor's campaign in 2010. Garret plans to pursue a career in public service and political campaigns.