

Jaleesa Hall

Jaleesa Hall is a native of Miami Florida. She holds a BA in Mass Media Arts, Radio, TV, Film from Clark Atlanta University, MPA from American University, and is a recent graduate of Wesley Theological Seminary where she attained a Master of Divinity and Community Engagement Fellowship.

In 2017, Jaleesa founded Raising A Village Foundation (RAV), a nonprofit organization that provides high - quality intervention programs and community resources to underserved children and families. In its inaugural year, RAV was proud to partner with several corporations and non-profit organizations to launch a new educational component Driven 2 Succeed, a youth development program for elementary, middle, and high school students that provides support in the areas of academia, social emotional learning, and college and career preparedness.

Currently, RAV is partnered with Communities in Schools Nation's Capital in Washington DC, to provide the Driven 2 Succeed program in several network schools, serving close to 200 children. In addition, RAV is gearing up for the upcoming launch of two after -school programs with the Community Preservation Development Corporation in January 2020. As Founder and CEO of RAV it is Jaleesa's mission is to improve the lives of children and families by creating innovative and sustainable programs that encourage safe, healthy, and whole communities.

