And on Tuesday, December 13th, 2016 from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. EST, JPO will host the webinar, “Veterans Treatment Courts: 2015 Survey Results.” In 2015, JPO at AU conducted a survey to provide a closer look into Veterans Treatment Courts. This survey was developed to provide a snapshot of the range of policies, practices, and services in operating VTC programs. The resulting report on this project, Veterans Treatment Courts: 2015 Survey Results, provides a view into these emerging courts. The webinar will discuss key findings and their implications for policy and practice. This report was completed as part of JPO's work funded by the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance's (BJA) Adult Drug Court Technical Assistance Project. Register here >>

JPO at AU Winter Holiday

American University offices are closed from December 24, 2016 through January 2, 2017. Hope you have a wonderful holiday, and we look forward to working with all of you in the New Year!

The Justice Programs Office (JPO), under the School of Public Affairs, at American University is pleased to present its second monthly newsletter. Each month, we will send you valuable information on our current initiatives such as the Drug Court and Veterans Treatment Court Technical Assistance projects, the Right to Counsel (R2C) National Campaign, and Training and Technical Assistance for State Administering Agencies. Please forward this newsletter to your colleagues and partners in the field, and if you have been forwarded this email but would like to receive it directly, email justice@american.edu.
