

Supervision Styles and Authenticity in Supervision

Thursday, April 27, 2023

12-1:00pm EST

About the Presenter:

Jeanne Piette, Ph.D.

Dr. Piette is a licensed clinical psychologist in DC and Virginia and has worked as a clinician, supervisor, consultant and administrator in a wide variety of clinical settings. Examples of prior roles include serving an internship/externship Training Director at American University, and as Senior Associate Director of the Counseling Center at George Mason University.

This seminar is free of cost and limited to American University Center for Well-Being Programs and Psychological Services (CWB) employees.

Seminar includes intermediate-level information and skills training in Clinical Supervision. Upon completion of this training, participants will be able to:

1. Identify key features of approaches to supervision, including developmental, multicultural, and psychodynamic models
2. Discuss common areas for growth for supervisors, such as developing the ability to cultivate a strong working supervisory alliance and increasing confidence and courage in a gatekeeping role.

1.0 hours of CE credits are available for licensed psychologists who attend entire program.

Seminar will take place virtually via Zoom. Attendees will receive Zoom link upon registration. Register at the following link:
