RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

School of International Service Dean's Summer Research Fellow (2018)

Awarded summer funds to conduct fieldwork for a project entitled "The Social Orders of Cocaine" to explore how transnational drug-trafficking affects urban governance in Central American and southern Mexico cities.

H.F. Guggenheim Research Fellow (2016-2018)

Lead researcher in the collaborative research project "State Cartels and Narco States: A comparative study of international drug-trafficking violence in Central America and Central Asia”. With year-long funding from the HFG Foundation, I conducted fieldwork in illicit drug corridors in Honduras and Guatemala as part of an ongoing study of the relative level and nature of government complicity in drug-trafficking in Central American and Central Asian countries.

A.W. Mellon Post Doctoral Fellow (2015-2017)

A.W. Mellon Postdoctoral Program at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. The Center for Humanities and the Department of Geography.

SSRC Lead Research Consultant (2015)

SSRC/OSF/Guatemalan Presidential Commission. Guatemala City, Guatemala

As Lead Researcher, I designed, organized, and implemented a two-month research project on the impact of illicit drugs and anti-drug policy in and on Guatemalan prisons. Contracted and managed team of six local researchers composed of prisoners, social workers, and social scientists to carry out ethnographic research and structured interviews with prisoners and prison staff. The report will be published by the SSRC.

Dorothea Lange Fellowship (2015)

Dorothea Lange Fellowship for Documentary Photography. Received $1000 honorary award for documentary photography collection entitled “Life and Death in Guatemala City”

HF Guggenheim Dissertation Fellow (2013-2014)

Harry Frank Guggenheim (HFG) Dissertation Fellowship. Berkeley, CA.

UCIGCC Research Fellow (2013-2014)

University of California Institute for Conflict and Cooperation (UCIGCC)

In cooperation with the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratories risk assessment division, this fellowship provided mentored guidance for conducting policy-level research. I also received additional York Fellowship funding to conduct a month-long research project in Latin American security policy in Washington DC (May 2014).

SSRC/DSD Research Fellow (2011-2012)

Social Science Research Council (SSRC)/ Open Society Foundation Drugs, Security and Democracy (DSD) Program. Guatemala City, Guatemala.

In addition to funding my dissertation fieldwork, the SSRC provided mentorship from leading academic and think-tank researchers for research design in violent spaces.

UC Berkeley Center for Latin American Studies Research Fellow (2010)

Guatemala City, Honduras, and Southern Mexico

Conducted preliminary research on anti-violence initiatives in Guatemala City, Guatemala, San Salvador, El Salvador, and San Jose Pinula, Honduras

UC Berkeley Geography Department Funding (2008-2011)

Research Fellow

International Accountability Project, India, SE Asia 01/08 - 09/08

Liaised with lawyers, human rights activists, and community leaders in India and SE Asia fighting human rights violations caused by development induced displacement. Researched, collected, and wrote case studies for a popular educational handbook designed to provide grassroots activists with the strategic and legal tools necessary to negotiate with and resist development-induced displacement.

Immigration Caseworker/Accredited Representative and Media Coordinator.

International Institute of San Francisco, Redwood City, CA. 08/04 - 03/08

Integrated legal expertise and individual client experiences to generate appeal waivers for undocumented individuals seeking permanent resident status in the United States.

Personally investigated, analyzed, and managed a caseload of over 700 clients applying for immigration and asylum benefits with the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and US Department of State (DOS). Counseled undocumented immigrants in one-on-one interviews and community wide advocacy meetings using fluent, subject-specific Spanish language skills. Identified and adapted legal defenses and appeals before the United States Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS). Conducted group trainings in immigration law and political advocacy for human service providers. Liaised with immigration and criminal lawyers, health care professionals, DHS officials, employers, police, and domestic violence specialists to advance legal arguments and build coordinated advocacy networks. Examined and advocated regional and national policy changes in USCIS practice; remotely investigated DOS and DHS waiver adjudication practices in US consulates in Guatemala, El Salvador, Peru, and Mexico. Provided legal advice and consultation for 30+ new walk-in clients a week. Awarded with Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) Accreditation to practice immigration law in federal court. Independently built expertise in Violence Against Women Act and U-visa provisions of US immigration law to represent victims of crime and domestic abuse. Instigated and organized domestic violence training for internal partners and coordinated collaborative domestic violence outreach in local immigrant communities. Created media outreach programs on national Spanish language television and radio channels.

Freelance Journalist

Cairo Times, Middle East Times, Cairo, Egypt 01/04 - 06/04

Investigated, adapted and produced feature articles focusing on regional human rights and socio-political issues in the Middle East and Africa. Developed relevant stories, identified and cultivated key sources and informants, and conducted interviews in both English and Arabic.
