

MARK S. TENENBAUM

PhD Student, Department of Government, School of Public Affairs
American University, Washington, D.C
(401) 662-1064 | tenenbaumm14@gmail.com | tenenblog.com

---

Concentrations

American Politics; Religion & Politics; Racial and Ethnic Politics

---

Education

PhD student in Political Science, American University Second year student; GPA: 3.97	2020 - Present
BA in Economics, University of Rhode Island Summa cum laude	2014 – 2018
BA in Political Science, University of Rhode Island Summa cum laude	2014 – 2018

Research Positions

Research Assistant, American University, Department of Government (Dr. Elizabeth Suhay) American Politics; Assisting with projects related to perceptions of inequality in the United States	2020 – Present
Independent Researcher, American University, Department of Government (Dr. Elizabeth Suhay) Semester-length independent study on Americans' explanations for inequality in the United States	Spring 2022

Teaching Positions

Teaching Assistant, American University, Department of Government (Dr. Elizabeth Suhay) BA Inequality in the US	Spring 2022
Teaching Assistant, American University, Department of Government (Dr. Andrew Flores) MA Research Methods: political analysis using mixed methods	Fall 2021
Teaching Assistant, University of Rhode Island, Department of Economics (Dr. Richard McIntyre) BA Competing Traditions in Economics	2017

Professional Experience

Financial Advisor, WealthCare Investment Partners Investment advisory firm based in Rhode Island	2018 – Present
Client Service Associate, WealthCare Investment Partners Investment advisory firm based in Rhode Island	2016 – 2018
Legal Intern, Gerlica Law Law firm based in Rhode Island	2016

Professional Licenses

FINRA Series 7: General Securities Representative	2018
FINRA Securities Industry Essentials Examination	2018
NASAA Series 66: Uniform Combined State Law	2018

Publications

Suhay, Elizabeth, Mark Tenenbaum, Austin Bartola. "Explanations for Inequality and Partisan Polarization the U.S., 1980-2002." The Forum (forthcoming)

Contributions to Research Projects

Suhay, Elizabeth. Debating the American Dream: How Beliefs about Inequality Divide the Public and Shape out Politics. (forthcoming)

---

Working Papers

Ideology, Religion, and the 2020 Latino Vote (with Ryan Burge). Under Review.

Forecasting Faith: Examining How Christians React to Demographic Change. Manuscript in progress.

How Connect Are They Really? A Further Exploration of the Voting Behavior of LGB Evangelicals (with Dakota Strode). Manuscript in progress

Devout Democrats: Social Sanctioning, Church Attendance, and Black Political Attitudes (with Marcus Johnson). Manuscript in progress

A Survey Experiment on Cancel Culture (with Andrew Flores, Dakota Strode, Emily Bello-Pardo, and Michael Heseltine). Manuscript in progress.

---

Grants

American University Department of Government: $1,000 Fall 2021

---

Conference Presentations

Forecasting Faith: Examining How Christians React to Demographic Change (forthcoming) September, 18th, 2022
APSA 2022 Annual Meeting (Religion and Social Conflict panel)

Forecasting Faith: Examining How Christians React to Demographic Change February 25th, 2022
American University Tri-School Research Conference, 2022

Devout Democrats (with Marcus Johnson) February 25th, 2022
American University Tri-School Research Conference, 2022

---

Univeristy Service

Conference Organizer, American Univeristy 2021 Tri-School Research Conference Spring 2021

Department Representative to Prospective Students Spring 2018
Department of Political Science, Univeristy of Rhode Island

---

Languages: R and R studio; Latex