

Kenki ADACHI, Ph.D.

Positions Held

Current

2010-present

Exchange Professor

School of International Service, American University, USA

2007-present

Associate Professor (with tenure)

College of International Relations, Ritsumeikan University, Japan

Past

2009-2010

Vice Dean

Graduate School of International Relations, Ritsumeikan University, Japan

2008-2009

Adjunct Professor

Kyoto University, Japan

2008-2009

Adjunct Professor

University of Tsukuba, Japan

2006-2007

Adjunct Professor

University of Kinjyo, Japan

2006-2007

Adjunct Professor

University of Hokuriku, Japan

2004-2008

Adjunct Professor

University of Kanazawa Seiryō, Japan

2004-2005

Adjunct Professor

University of Tsukuba, Japan

2003-2007

Associate Professor (with tenure)

Faculty of Law, Kanazawa University, Japan

2003

Instructor

Department of Social Science, University of Tsukuba, Japan

Books

2009

Institutional Interplay and Global Governance: A Case Study of Conventional Weapons Governance. pp.1-232. (Written in Japanese), Yushindou Press, Tokyo.

2004

The Ottawa Process: Formation of Mine Ban Regime. pp.1-290. (Written in Japanese), Yushindou Press, Tokyo.

* won 15th Canadian Prime Minister Award

Refereed Publications

- 2010 “Arms control and disarmament in conventional weapons: Impacts of increasing regime density,” The Journal of International Security 37(4), pp.1-13. (Written in Japanese)
- 2009 “The Oslo Process: Implications of the Adoption of the Convention on Cluster Munitions,” The Journal of International Security 36(4), pp.61-82. (Written in Japanese)
- 2007 “The Development of Conventional Weapons Governance through Interactions among International Regimes,” Journal of International Relations, Vol. 148, pp.104-117. (Written in Japanese)
- 2005 “Why Japan Signed the Mine Ban Treaty: The Political Dynamics behind the Decision,” Asian Survey, 45(3), pp.397-413
- 2003 “The Ottawa Treaty: An Analysis of Canada’s Decision to Lead the International Movement to Ban Anti-Personnel Landmines,” The Annual Review of Canadian Studies, Vol. 23, pp.67-91.
- 2002 “Toward a Total Ban of Anti-Personnel Landmines- An Analysis of A Unique Regime Formation Process,” Journal of International Relations, Vol. 129, pp.175-191. (Written in Japanese)
- 2002 “Dealing with Security Agendas after the End of Cold War,” Research of International Political Economy, Vol. 9, pp.101-111. (Written in Japanese)
- 2000 “Non-Governmental Organization in International Political Process,” Research of International Political Economy, Vol. 6, pp.23-35. (Written in Japanese)
- 2000 “Global-Oriented Interest Groups in Japan: Their Foundations and Characteristics,” Research of International Political Economy, Vol. 5, pp.49-62. (Written in Japanese)

Non-refereed Publications

- Forthcoming 2010 “Canadian Foreign Policy: Trilemma among national identity, Canada-US relation, and national interest,” and “Lester B. Pearson” both in Canada (Written in Japanese), Edited by Yutaka Takenaka and Masako Iino, Akashishoten Press, Tokyo
- 2010 “Globalization and NGOs in Japan,” in Political Function of Social Groups: Interest Groups and Civil Society. (Written in Japanese), Edited by Yutaka Tsujinaka and Hiroki Mori, Bokutakusha Press, Tokyo, pp.272-286
- 2009 “Changing Roles of NGOs in the Age of Globalization: A Case Study on Conventional Weapons Governance,” Journal of Ritsumeikan Social Sciences and Humanities, Vol.1, pp.127-136.
- 2008 “Global Governance in ‘International’ Society,” in Significances and Limitations of International Society. (Written in Japanese), Edited by Yoneyuki Sugita, Kokusai Shoin Press, Tokyo, pp.23-38.

- 2008 “Reexamination of the Relationship between Governments and NGOs in International Regime Formation Processes,” Ritsumeikan Journal of International Studies, Vol.21, pp.1-18. (Written in Japanese)
- 2007 “Global Norm Formation through New Diplomacy: A Case Study on the Foundation Process of the International Criminal Court,” International Affairs, No.560, pp.35-52. (Written in Japanese)
- 2006 “An Analysis of the Formation Process of the Fifth Protocol to the CCW: Effects and Limitations of Norm Grafting Strategy,” Kanazawa Law Review, 49(1), pp.125-143. (Written in Japanese)
- 2004 “Japan’s Decision to Sign the Mine Ban Treaty: From Discourse Rivalry Model,” Kanazawa Law Review, 46(2), pp.157-183. (Written in Japanese)
- 2004 “Regulations on interest groups’ political activities: Comparison between Japan and South Korea,” in Civil Society and Interest Groups in South-Korea. (Written in Japanese, Original Title), Edited by Yutaka Tsujinaka and Yeom Jaeho, Bokutakusha Press, Tokyo, pp.164-182.
- 2002 “Relationship between the Japanese government and interest groups,” Civil Society and Interest Groups in Japan. (Written in Japanese, Original Title), Edited by Yutaka Tsujinaka, Bokutakusha Press, Tokyo, pp.120-138.
- 2002 “Globalization and Global-Oriented Interest Group,” Civil Society and Interest Groups in Japan. (Written in Japanese,), Edited by Yutaka Tsujinaka, Bokutakusha Press, Tokyo, pp.192-209.

Awards

- 2006 Canadian Prime Minister Award for Translation
John D. Meehan, The Dominion and the Rising Sun: Canada Encounters Japan, 1929-41, (Awarded for the Japanese version, translated by Toshihiro Tanaka, Kenki Adachi, and Kunihiro Haraguchi)
- 2004 15th Canadian Prime Minister Award
Awarded to The Ottawa Process: Formation of Mine Ban Regime
- 2002 Best Dissertation Award for Academic Year 2002, University of Tsukuba

Fellowships and Grants

- 2009-2012 Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research Grant
Theme: Research on Actors that Promote Institutional Interplay
- 2009 Grant for Publishing by Ritsumeikan University
- 2008-2013 Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research Grant
Theme: Research on Clashes among Global Norms
Part of collaborative research proposal
- 2006-2008 Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research Grant
Theme: Research on Institutional Interplay and Global Security Governance
- 2004-2006 Research Institute of Peace and Security Scholarship
Theme: Research on Global Security Governance

2004	Grant for Publishing by the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science For The Ottawa Process: Formation of Mine Ban Treaty
2001-2002	Grant for Encouragement of Research, Grant for Research Fellow of the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science
2001	Rotary Foundation International Goodwill Scholarship
1998-2001	Ikuei-kai Scholarship
1994-1997	Japan Security Foundation Scholarship

Professional Service

2009-present	Editorial board Peace Studies
2007-present	Program Committee Japan Association for Canadian Studies
2006-2007	Editor Kanazawa Law Review
2001-2003	Research Fellow of the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science
2001-2002	Visiting Researcher Department of Political Science, University of Ottawa
	Referee The Journal of International Relations, Journal of Peace Studies, Journal for International Security